HARD PRESSED.

Some Democratic journals are endeavoring to persuade their readers that negro suffrage is carefully hidden under the Constitutional Amendment, to be brought out after it shall be ratified. This allegation has not even the poor merit of speciousness. The third section simply declares that "all persons born or naturalized" in this country shall be accounted "citizens;" and that "no State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States." The very phraseology of the section contradicts the interpretion sought to be put upon it.

There are say twelve milions of white females, living in the United States, who were born here. All these are as absolutely citizens as their male relations. There are say seven millions of white males, also born on the soil, under the full age of twenty-one years. All these are citizens. There are, moreover, half a million of free blacks, natives of the country, every one of whom is a citizen. Even Chief Justice TANEY confessed that if DRED SCOTT had been free, he would have been a citizen, and entitled to bring suit. Strictly in accordance with this view are the clauses of all the State Constitutions which define who may vote. "White male citizens, of the full age of twenty-one years." There are, then, citizens who are neither white, nor male, nor of full age. An examination into the changes of phraseology in this particular, and the rulings of the courts consequent on those changes, demonstrates that no other interpretation is admissible.

It follows, therefore, that negro suffrage is not covered up in this section, and that those who affirm it is are either miserably ignorant or utterly perverse.

CANDIDATES FOR CONGRESS.

In Pennsylvania the nominations for Congress have all been made, except in the 14th district, and are as follows:

Republican.	Democrats.
1. Jos. R. Lyndall,	Saml. J. Randall.*
2. Chas. O'Neill,*	JOHN HULME.
3. Leonard Myers.*	Chas. Buckwalter.
4. Wm. D. Kelly.*	JOHN WELSH.
5. Caleb N. Taylor.	Henry P. Ross.
6. David Thomas.	B. Markley Boyer.*
7. Jno. M. Broomall.*	NANTHANIEL PRATT.
8. D. J. Lincoln.	S. Lawrence Getz.
9. Thaddeus Stevens.*	Saml. H. Reynolds.
10. H. L. Cake.	C. D. Glonninger.
11. Wm. Lilly.	D. M. Van Auken.
12. James Archbald,	Charles Denison.
13. Ulysses Mercur.*	Wm. Ewell.
14.
15. R. M. Henderson.	A. J. Glossbrenner.*
[illegible] Koontz.*	J. M'Dowell Sharpe.
[illegible] Morrell.	Robt. L. Johnson.
[illegible] F. Wilson.*	T. P. Wright.
[illegible] cofield.*	Wm. D. Scott.
[illegible] nny.	Gen. A. B. McCalmont.
21. [illegible] Covode.†	Hugh W. Wier.
22. J. K. Moorhead.*	J. B. Sweitzer.
23. Thos. Williams.*	B. G. CHILDS.
24. G. V. Lawrence.*	Wm. Montgomery.

Candidates marked with a star (*) are members of the present Congress, and those marked with a dagger (†) have been members of some previous Congress. The names given in SMALL CAPS are JOHNSON foragers, who acted with the Union men.

In the 14th District, composed of Dauphin, Juniata, Northumberland, Snyder and Union, there are three aspirants on the Republican side. Of these Mr. MILLER, the present member, has two counties, Mr. PACKER two, and Mr. PATTERSON one. The decision is to be made this week.

THE New York Tribune states that the number of its subscribers has increased more than fifty-six thousand since the first of August. The World explains:

"Mr. Raymond is editor of the Times, and the subscribers of that journal have been deserting by thousands and transferring their names to the Tribune, since Mr. Raymond fully committed himself to the Philadelphia movement. They would have equally deserted if the call of the Albany Convention had been issued jointly by the two Committees, instead of issued by one and indorsed by the other; have equally deserted if General Dix had been nominated, instead of Mayor Hoffman; equally if the Republicans had been one-half, instead of one-third, of the names on the Central Committee. Ten thousand of new subscribers to the Tribune have not left the Times on any such trivial grounds as these. It was not the husk they objected to, but what was within the husk."

Then how do the democrats expect to make Mr. Hoffman Governor by means of Conservative votes? That game would seem to be spoiled already.

IN the Eleventh district of this State Gen. WM. LILLY is the Republican candidate for Congress and not Gen. WILLIAMS, as we stated yesterday.

CHARLES F. ROCKWELL, of Wayne county, is the Republican candidate for State Senator in the district composed of Wayne, Pike, Monroe and Carbon.

Major WM. SCHOONOVER is the Republican candidate for Assembly in Carbon and Monroe counties.

Before the war Gen LILLY was a democrat of prominence, and had served in the Legislature two or three years under elections by the democratic party. When the war broke out, he did not hesitate a moment, but took his stand on the side of the government with a boldness and fidelity he has ever since maintained

MAJ. JOHN THOMPSON, the efficient, worthy and gentlemanly Postmaster of Ebensburg, Cambria county, Pennsylvania, has been removed, and Mr. E. J. Mills appointed his successor. Maj. Thompson had one fault—a very grave one to the administration. He conceived integrity to the principles of the great party which carried our country safely through the dark hour of rebellion, as something more sacred to the loyal citizen than position. Nothing could induce him to abandon the right, not even the privilege of retaining the office, which he has so long and honorably filled. Let his name be enrolled among the tried and true patriots of the nation.

THE New York Times editorially says: "If the World has labored under the delusion that Mr. Raymond was pledged by the action of the Albany Convention in any manner, whatever, we congratulate it on having discovered its mistake."

GENERAL NEWS.

—Over one-third of the cotton crop of Mississippi is made in nine counties.

—The Austrian Emperor has sold sixty of his private horses as a measure of retrenchment.

—A. Johnson is reported to be swinging round the circle to get used to the whirling he will receive in November.

—The New York News says: "Mr. Johnson must depend upon the Democratic party for re-election." We presume that is so.

—The Democrats of Michigan have endorsed the Johnson Conservative State ticket. The coalition will be worse whipped than any party in that State since Hull surrendered to the British.

—The New York News wants Johnson to stop talking and "strike a bee line to Washington." Johnson could not strike a bee line. He travels on a circle.

A Grand Success.
Notwithstanding the great expense attending the many manufacturing establishments in our city, we will make mention of one that drives right along, regardless of expense. Judging from the amount of advertising this house does, we are made to believe it must be in a very prosperous condition. The establishment we have reference to is the Pittsburgh Cloak and Mantilla Store. The cloaks manufactured at this establishment are made of splendid material, which is a sufficient incentive for our lady friends to make this house a speciality when replenishing their wardrobes.

There are sixteen Professors and every branch of Medicine and Surgery is thoroughly taught.

Persons wishing to obtain scholarships can apply to L. Oldshue, M. D., Professor of Urino Pathology in the above-mentioned College. His office and residence is No. 132 Grant street, Pittsburgh Pa.

Applications for Pardon—Appointments by the President—Opinion of Attorney General Stansberry.

NEW YORK, September 20.—A Herald's Washington special says: Although there is a large collection of applications on file, and the pardon seekers who apply personally have returned to Washington in augmented force since the arrival of the President, but few cases have been acted upon. The following are the only persons whose pardons have been ordered to be issued under the $20,000 clause of the amnesty proclamation: Francis F. Dunbar, of South Carolina; Charles W. Button, Virginia; Thomas P. Dackey, Arkansas; Robert Lowery, Mississippi; Wm. M. Hall, Mississippi; Thomas C. Calloway, North Carolina.

The opinion of the Attorney General of the United States, Mr. Stansberry, in regard to the power of the President, where appointments to office have been made in the recess prior to the last session of the Senate, and there was a failure during the session to make a permanent appointment, either by the refusal of the Senate to confirm the nominee or a failure to act on the nomination or other cause, to make a temporary appointment in the present recess, is published. In his discussion of the subject, the Attorney General takes up the general question whether the President can fill up a vacancy in the recess which existed in the prior session. After a review of the precedents established since the foundation of the Government, and an examination of the Constitution and existing laws on the subjects, he arrives at the affirmative proposition, and consequently of the original proposition submitted to him.

Rumors About Maximilian.

NEW YORK, September 20.—The Herald's City of Mexico and Vera Cruz correspondent, writing under date of September 1st, says: Maximilian had received a dispatch from some person unknown, saying that all was useless. On the strength of this, rumors are prevalent that Maximilian is a prisoner to Bazaine, that he wishes to go to Europe, and that the Marshal will not let him, and others equally wild. There is no doubt that there is a difference between him and the French.

The citizens living near Vera Cruz are removing inside the city wall for protection, and fortifications are being constructed. It is reported in the capital that Bazaine and Duoy are to leave on the next packet. Madame Escondon has presented a long memorial asking the release of her husband, who is charged with heavy peculations on the Imperial Government.

The War in South America.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—The steamer North America brings Rio de Janerio papers to August 25th.

Advices from the Platte report fighting of a most stubborn and sanguinary nature on the 16th and 18th of July, causing a loss of 4,200 in killed and wounded in the allied armies, and an approximate amount in the Paraguayan army. The latter were fighting chiefly within intrenchments, and consequently their loss was less.

The sales of coffee at Rio for the fortnight were 85,000 bags, at an advance of 200@300 ries per roba on the finest grades. Stock is reduced to 40,000 bags, much of which is inferior. The new crop is estimated at 2,500,000 bags.

Rhode Island Delegates to the Pittsburgh Convention.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., September 20.—A spirited convention of men who served in the army or navy, was held this morning in this place, to elect delegates to the Pittsburgh Convention. Major General Burnside, President, and Lieutenant Colonel S. A. Pearce, was Secretary. Addresses were made by General Burnside and others. Fifty or more delegates were elected to the Pittsburgh Convention, and resolutions were adopted approving the policy of Congress relative to reconstruction.

The Late Steamboat Collision in New York—Coroner's Inquest.

NEW YORK, September 20.—An inquest was held before the Coroner yesterday on the body of Mr. P. Bausch, a victim of the disaster near the Desbrasses Street Ferry, on Sunday last, when the ferry boat D. S. Gre[illegible] collided with the steamer George Washin[illegible]. The amplest testimony was elicited showing great culpability on the part of the pilot of the ferry boat. A verdict was rendered in accordance with the facts, in which a censure of the pilot was embraced.

Fenian Meeting.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—A meeting of Fenians was held in Troy, last night, and was addressed by General Gleason, of the Stephens wing. Considerable excitement prevails among the circles in that city, relating to the expected invasion of Canada. It is supposed, considering the reinforcements arriving in the provinces, that the movement would prove a disastrous failure. A picnic will be given at Jones' Woods, on Monday next, under the auspices of the Stephens wing.

GREAT FLOOD.

Effects of the Late Rains.

RAILROAD BRIDGES WASHED AWAY.

TOWNS UNDER WATER.

Several Persons Drowned.

IMMENSE DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY.

20,000,000 Bushels Corn Destroyed.

DAMAGE DONE TO RAILROADS.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 20.—The rain storm continues. With the exception of the Little Miami, and the Marietta & Cincinnati, every railroad leading out of the city has been damaged to such an extent as to interrupt the running of trains. The Indianapolis & Cincinnati road lost three bridges, but the most important one, over the Great Miami, has so far escaped. The Hamilton & Dayton and Atlantic & Great Western are interrupted at Elk creek. The Dayton & Michigan lost three bridges. The Indiana Central lost three bridges between Cambridge City and Indianapolis. The Great Eastern road is damaged between Richmond and Chicago, but to what extent is not known. Trains were withdrawn from both ends of this road yesterday. The Columbus, Piqua & Indianapolis road lost its great bridge at Piqua. A portion of the Ohio and Mississippi bridge, over the great Missouri, is down. If the storm subsides, it is thought most of the roads will be in operation again by to-morrow.

Unprecedented freshets are reported on all sides. White river was two feet higher yesterday at Indianapolis than in 1847. White Water is reported seven and a half feet higher than in 1847. The great corn fields along the bottoms of the Big Miami have suffered considerably, the flood in the corn fields being higher than the tallest corn stocks. Scores of miles of fences have been carried away.

The Sciota river at Columbus overflowed its banks, inundating the whole valley west of the river and north of the National Road. A great many families have been driven from their homes, or compelled to seek shelter in the second stories of their dwellings.

Dispatches from Dayton says: The Miami tributaries are several inches higher than in 1848. The lowest part of Dayton is submerged. The village of McPhersonville across the river, is ten feet under water. Enormous damage has been done in the valley to the corn-fields.

Three men were drowned at Piqua, and one killed by the falling timbers of the bridge. The Ohio river here has risen ten feet during the last twenty-four hours.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 20.—With the exception of slight showers this afternoon the rain has ceased. There are indications, however, of more rain. It is estimated that twenty millions bushels of corn have been destroyed by the freshet in the Miami bottoms.

Reports from the northwest represent the flood as general, with immense destruction of property. It will require four or five weeks to repair the Ohio and Mississippi bridge across the Big Miami. In the meantime connection is made with Lawrenceburg by boat.

A dispatch from Indianapolis says: The Bellefontaine and Reno and Indianapolis are the only roads that have been running trains regularly from that city. The Jeffersonville railroad bridge, four miles south of Indianapolis, is washed away, and it is reported that the track at Edinburg and Columbus, Indiana, is submerged. The Columbus and Indianapolis road is badly damaged. Four bridges are washed away between Indianapolis and Richmond. The Terre Haute and Indianapolis road is not so badly damaged. The regular St. Louis train went out on this road to-day. The Lafayette road lost one bridge, but trains go through by transferring passengers. There have been no trains over the Cincinnati road since Tuesday. Heavy rains fell last night and this morning. The prospects are more favorable now, with indications of clearing up.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 20.—The corn crop in the low lands along the rivers and streams in this section is greatly damaged by the flood. Trains on all railroads centering here will run regularly to-morrow, except the Indiana Central and Louisville. Both the latter suffered severely, and it will be several days before communication will be fully established. The weather is clearing up.

Cholera at Nashville.

NASHVILLE, Sept. 20.—The cholera deaths for the past twenty-four hours were nineteen. Physicians pronounce the epidemic on the decline. Heavy rains fell all day. Weather cool.

Jeff. Davis.

FORTRESS MONROE, Sept. 18.—Bishop Greene, of Mississippi, and John W. Kelly, an ex-German Catholic Minister, in an interview with Jeff. Davis, informed him they would make an appeal to President Johnson for his release, if he had no objection, to which Mr. Davis responded that he thanked them for their kind intentions and assured them that such efforts would be futile, as his counsel had made similar efforts and were told he must be tried by military and civil courts upon charges made against him.

NEW YORK, September 20.—A Washington dispatch states that the consultation in relation to the trial of Jeff. Davis is still going on. No decision has been made.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON THIRD PAGE.)

The Coming Convention—Completing the Arrangements.

Another meeting of the Resident Committee was held yesterday morning at the City Hall, Gen. Negley occupying the chair, and Sergt. J. H. Kerr acting as Secretary. A vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. J. E. Wells and others who had offered to accommodate delegates to the Convention at their houses.

Lieut. Eli Torrance reported that he had secured some forty-two flags for the use of the committee, as might be deemed necessary. Report accepted and the committee authorized to secure the flags.

Major McConnell, Chairman on Artillery, reported that he had been offered the use of two guns from Charles Knap Nephews, and also two from John Harper, and that he expected to be favored with some from Mr. Nimick; also that any quantity of muskets could be had. The report was accepted and the committee directed to procure the arms.

Gen. Gallupe reported that Mr. Creighton, Assistant Superintendent of the Pennsylvania Railroad, had expressed his willingness to keep trains from Liberty street after six o'clock of the evening of the 25th in order that the procession might pass unobstructed. The thanks of the committee were tendered to Mr. Creighton for this favor, and also sending two cars to the mountains for evergreens, without charge. A vote of thanks was also tendered to Messrs. Knap Nephews, and to Mr. John Harper for their kindness and liberality.

Capt. Dalgleish reported that an ample supply of evergreens had been secured and would be on hand during the day.

A committee of three, consisting of General Gallupe, Dr. Umbstetter and Dr. McCandless, was appointed to confer with Mr. J. A. Myler, as to the best method of distributing the fire works.

On motion it was resolved that the route of the torchlight procession of the 25th be changed so that when the column reached Robinson street, Allegheny, in going over, it proceed along Robinson to Anderson, thence up Anderson to Ohio, down Ohio to Diamond Square, and from thence as before published.

On motion of General Gallupe, a committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Callow, Crawford and Easton, were appointed in conjunction with the previous committee to confer with the captains of the different fire companies in regard to their turning out at the processions.

Colonel Bayne reported that Mr. Dain, livery keeper, on Penn street, had kindly offered an elegant carriage with four horses free of charge.

General Negley reported that a pavillion tent one hundred and fifty by sixty feet, could be secured for the three days of the Convention at a moderate cost. On motion, it was ordered that the pavillion be at once secured. (This extensive pavillion will be placed on the Allegheny commons near the wigwam.) It was resolved that two additional stands be erected on the commons for the accommodation of speakers.

Major McConnell reported that the County Commissioners had kindly offered the use of six rooms in the Court House for the soldiers; also, that the use of the Council Chambers could be had. A vote of thanks was tendered to the Commissioners, and to Thomas Steele, Esq., for their kindness and attention.

It was unanimously resolved that the Executive Committee of the Boys in Blue cordially invite all Geary clubs and all other civic societies and political organizations to turn out with the Boys in Blue on Tuesday evening and on Thursday. The Boys in Blue will form on Liberty street with the right resting on Water—all other organizations to form on Liberty street, the right resting on St. Clair. In districts where there is no Geary club the citizens take places near clubs from the districts near them.

A letter was read from General Collis, of Philadelphia, which states that about one hundred and fifty delegates, including General Joshua Owens and himself, would be present at the Convention. A letter was also read Major Ben. Perley Poor; of Boston, stating that he would also be present.

It is requested that all the members of the resident committee attend the meetings daily. The labors have heretofore fallen upon a few, and it is hoped a larger attendance will be present hereafter.

It was also resolved that the officers appointed to command such delegations of the Boys in Blue, Geary Clubs, &c., who will turn out on Tuesday evening, be and they are hereby invited to act as additional Aids to the Chief Marshal. Also resolved, that the assistant Marshals and Aids meet the Chief Marshal at City Hall, in uniform, on Tuesday evening, at 6 o'clock precisely.

The committee now adjourned to meet at ten o'clock this morning.

Will Let the Grapes Alone.

Mary Henry and Kate Hill, two well-known characters on the Allegheny police records, were before Mayor Morrison again yesterday. For some time past they have been wandering about in vicious vagrancy, on the hill on the Butler plank road, towards Butcher's Run. They have been disturbing the peace of the community out there at an extended rate, by all sorts of disorderly goings on, prominent among which were robbing spring houses and stealing grapes. On Wednesday night they were captured by officers Hess and Klein, of Mayor Morrison's police. Yesterday morning Mary Henry was committed to jail for fifteen days, on a charge of vagrancy, and the other one, Kate Hill, was sent by Mayor Morrison to the Poor House. Neither will probably steal any more grapes for awhile.

The "Boys in Blue."

At a meeting of the "Boys in Blue" of Ohio township, held at Glendale last evening, an organization having been effected, the following resolutions were passed:

"Resolved, That in General John W. Geary, the Union Republican candidate for Governor, we recognize a tried soldier and patriot, and a man in every respect worthy the confidence of the people.

"Resolved, That we shall do all we can by our votes and voices, to secure his election to the Gubernatorial chair.

"Resolved, That we fully endorse the resolutions passed at the Convention of the Soldiers' and Sailors' held in Pittsburgh on the seventh of September, instant."

Flag Presentation.—A grand affair is to come off this evening at East Liberty. The ladies of that stirring borough are to present a beautiful National Flag to the Division of the Boys in Blue out there. W. C. Moreland, Esq., on behalf of the fair donors, will make the presentation speech, and the flag will be received, on behalf of the boys, by Sergeant John H. Kerr, who will make appropriate reception remarks. After the special ceremonies of the evening, speeches will be made by Dr. Hawkins of Tennessee, General J. K. Moorhead and General A. L. Pearson. Everything has been arranged for a thoroughly pleasant and profitable occasion, and a large number will undoubtedly be on hand to enjoy it.

Gen. Granville Moody.—Gen. Granville Moody, better known as "Colonel Moody, the fighting parson," has been appointed chaplain of the Soldiers' and Sailors' National Convention which meets here on Tuesday next. It was uncertain at first whether Gen. Moody would be present, but we are now assured that he will attend without fail. This distinguished patriot is well known to all our readers. He was remarkably well known to the enemy, who might be anywhere in his neighborhood, and was quite as formidable in the field as forcible in the pulpit. Gen. Moody held a conspicuous command under Maj. Gen. Negley at the battle of Stone River, and in other heavy engagements of the Western army.

An Insulting Puppy Arrested.—Yesterday afternoon officers Hess and Scott, of the Allegheny police, arrested a man named Caldwell, on Ohio street in Allegheny. He was grossly drunk, and was indulging in the little eccentricity of insulting every person, male and female, that he happened to come in contact with. He had carried his pleasant recreation to an extent that was unendurable, when the officers gobbled him up and made short work of his amusement. At his hearing before Mayor Morrison, he was fined five dollars and costs, and was discharged with a severe reprimand from his Honor.

A Bold Thief.—On Wednesday evening, as a porter at the Monongahela House, named Joseph Marke, was in the act of paying some money to a man at the entrance on Smithfield street, an individual, who afterwards gave his name as William Duver, came by in a hurry, and snatching four dollars out of the porter's hand, ran. Officer George Strain happened near by at the time, and immediately gave chase and succeeded in overhauling William. He was taken before Mayor McCarthy, and after a hearing yesterday morning, was committed for trial in default of the necessary bail.

Drunk in Allegheny.—On Wednesday night, a night watchman in Allegheny, while making his rounds discovered a man named John Hunter, on Federal street, in a state of desperate intoxication. He was cavorting about the street cutting up more extravagant capers, and making more impossible noises than one can well imagine. The watchman cut his frolics remarkably short, and lodged him in the lockup. Yesterday morning he paid his fine and costs, and went out for another tight.

Destructive Fire—Eliza Furnaces Burned.—At about half-past seven o'clock last evening a fire occurred at the Eliza Blast Furnaces of Messrs. Jones & Laughlin, at Laughlin's Station on the Connellsville R. R., about four miles from the city. We did not learn the origin of the fire or whether the furnaces were completely destroyed. The damage done was heavy, at all events, and several dwelling houses were also more or less burned.

"The Loyal Ladies of Allegheny City are requested to assemble at the Second Ward Public School House, on Friday, Sept. 21st, at 2 P. M., to consult with regard to erecting a triumphal arch or some fitting testimonial of welcome to our soldiers, who are expected to arrive on Tuesday. Ladies, respond promptly, and let us show [illegible] Pittsburgh the honor of extending a cordial welcome to our brave heroes. [illegible]

Mass Meeting in City Hall—Large and Enthusiastic Attendance—Speeches by Hon. Galusha A. Grow, Hon. S. A. Purviance and Songs by Prof. Pope.

City Hall was crowded to overflowing last evening by an enthusiastic audience, composed of our loyal citizens who were drawn thither by the announcement that the Hon. Galusha A. Grow and the Hon. S. A. Purviance would be present and deliver addresses.

The meeting was called to order by Sheriff Stewart, who proposed the following gentlemen as officers for the occasion:

President—C. D. Brigham, Esq.

C. Beatty, Dr. D. W. Lewis, R. W. Thomas, Esq., George Finley, Esq., Chas. H. Armstrong, Esq., Col. Jos. Kay, Wm. Coleman, Esq., Dr. A. H. Gross, Wm. K. Hart, Esq., James McKelvey, Esq., George R. White Esq.

Secretaries—Thos. P. Houston, Esq., Wm. Anderson, Esq., John Harper, Esq., Wm. Neeb, Esq., C. E. Locke, Esq., F. J. Busha, Esq., Lieut. E. C. Negley, Wm. Sellers, Esq., Wm. Irwin, Esq., W. W. Ward, Esq., John R. Baum, Esq., Thos. H. Hunter, Esq., Wm. B. McCrea, Esq., Sergt. Wm. Bostwick, George M. Petty, Esq., Wm. McCleary, Esq., John Vandegriff, Esq.

Mr. Purviance was warmly received on coming forward, and when the applause had somewhat subsided, he began his address by referring to the vast importance of the present canvass which he declared to be fraught with momentous events—events that would decide the fate, for weal or woe, of this government. The issue was, whether shall we sustain our lawfully elected representatives in Congress, in their efforts to restore the Union by throwing around it such safeguards as prudence may dictate; or shall we sustain the President in his insane and unconstitutional policy of reconstruction.

Mr. Purviance maintained that Mr. Johnson had no right to name a policy. Congress was the only party who could legislatate or adopt a policy and no man, much less the Executive could place his will in opposition to the law-making power. The Philadelphia Convention, he said, was a convocation of traitors. The same men who had met in Chicago in 1864, and declared the war a failure, and passed resolutions advising the withdrawal of our armies from the field, and allowing treason to triumph—by acknowledging our inability to put down the rebellion. The other part of that body was composed of men who had with sword and bayonet, attempted to overthrow the government, but thank God their efforts had failed, through the perseverance of our northern arms.

Mr. Vallandigham was elected a member of that Convention, but was not allowed to take his seat, by Mr. Cowan, not that he was opposed to Mr. Vallandigham's politics, but he wished to make the people of the north believe that they were the loyal Union men. They had admitted a worse traitor, however, in the person of Governor Orr, of South Carolina, who had been a rabid pro slavery man all his life and had attempted to crush poor Kansas beneath the heel of slave oligarchy. This Governor Orr had lent himself to play a part in a ridiculous farce—that of walking arm in arm into that Convention with Couch, from Massachusetts. Senator Cowan had said that the scene was so effecting that it moved all present, including himself, to tears. Well, if it did, they are the first tears shed by Edgar A. Cowan since the inauguration of the war. He had no tears for the thousands of brave men who fell on the red field of battle, in defense of the government under which he lives. He shed no tears when young Geary fell, or Dahlgren, or Hampton, but he had plenty to waste over such a fellow's return to the north as Governor Orr. General Couch had been appointed a collector as a reward for the part he played in the comedy. In that Convention there was a set of resolutions or a party platform adopted which gave to the South everything they wanted, as of old. The speaker contended that while the South were willing to give a seeming acquiescence to those professions, they only awaited a fitting opportunity to shake off all restrictions and demand that we shall assist them to pay their debt, if they are taxed to pay ours. If they were allowed to return to the halls of Congress without first giving certain guarantees of future good faith, they would rule the country as they have done, and place those men whose clothing is yet dripping with the blood of our fellow men in the highest official places in the land.

Here Mr. Purviance went into a lengthy review of the constitutional amendment, the leading points of which he explained in a clear and lucid manner. He also referred to some declarations made by Senator Cowan in a late speech in Greensburg, and expressed his regret that he had not the time to review that gentleman's late political course as he had hoped to.

After speaking for about an hour, Mr. Purviance withdrew, stating as a reason that Mr. Grow was present, and he knew the people were anxious to hear him.

Just as Mr. Purviance was concluding, a large delegation arrived from South Pittsburgh, accompanied by a brass band and bearing a transparency on which was inscribed, "Traitors must take back seats." "Loyal men to the Front," and "South Pittsburgh Geary Club." The delegation was received with three ringing cheers, after which, in answer to repeated calls, Professor Pope again made his appearance, and sang in an admirable style, a song full of piquancy and rich hits at the opposition party, which was received with tremendous cheering.

The Hon. Galusha A. Grow was next introduced. The applause that greeted him was of such a description as to cause a stoic to feel flattered—lasting, as it did, for several minutes. After thanking the people for the cordial welcome extended to him, and alluding to the fact that it was six years since he had first met the Pittsburgh public on the stump, he went into a lengthy, elaborate and eloquent discourse on the origin, progress and conclusion of the late war and the grave questions that have arisen since the termination of hostilities. He declared that while Andrew Johnson had proclaimed there was a peace, there was no peace. Is this peace, when peaceable loyal men are massacred in the name of law and municipal authority, and backed by the authority of the Chief Executive of the nation? He was opposed to the policy that would take back those unshrined traitors and place them in the high places of authority and power—those men who stood self-convicted before the tribunal of public opinion as false to God, false to their country, and false to all that is holy and good in constitutional government.

Our space will not permit us to give a full report of Mr. Grow's speech, which was full of poetical beauties, sound logic and common sense reasoning. It was listened to throughout with marked attention and frequently interrupted by thunders of applause. After Mr. G. Grow had finished speaking, Prof. Pope sang "The Philadelphia Convention," after which the meeting adjourned with cheers for Congress, the Union, and the Union Republican State and county nominations.

Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention—Accommodations for Members of the Press.

The Press Reception Committee of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention held a meeting yesterday, and arranged upon a plan of action in order to facilitate matters and prevent confusion. It is thought that nearly two hundred editors, reporters and newspaper correspondents will be in attendance at the Convention. To accommodate all, a double desk, running the entire width of the hall and immediately below the platform, will be erected. Each chair at the table will be numbered, and persons desirous of reporting the proceedings for any journal at home or abroad, will obtain tickets reserving a particular seat to them during the sitting of the Convention.

Members of the Press arriving in the city are instructed to immediately call and register their names with John C. Harper, Esq., of the Commercial, who will furnish them with orders for cards of admission, which will be supplied by the Secretary of the Committee, T. P. Houston, of the Gazette. The spacious room immediately back of the stage in City Hall has been set apart as headquarters for reporters desiring to send special reports to their journals by telegraph. An operator will be in attendance there at all hours, to forward the messages and reports as soon as possible. Arrangements of a similar character will be made for the accommodation of members of the Press in the Wigwam, Allegheny. The Committee will hold another meeting this afternoon, at three o'clock, in the Chronicle editorial rooms.

Third "Ward Boys in Blue."

In compliance with a call a large number of the honorably discharged soldiers and sailors of the Third ward met at the office of General A. L. Pearson, to organize the "Boys in Blue" of the above ward. A temporary organization was effected by calling Sergt. Jesse H. Lippincott to the chair.

The following named gentlemen were elected Vice-Presidents: Lieut. John B. McClelland, Sergt. David M. Easton, Lieut. Daniel W. Olegar, Private George H. Scheea, and Private I. C. Farrar.

On motion, Capt. Wm. T. Easton was elected Secretary, and Daniel W. Olegar, Esq., Treasurer.

On motion, the following gentlemen were appointed a Committee on Permanent Organization: Sergt. David M. Easton, Lieut. Daniel W. Olegar, and Private Charles H. Dodge.

The meeting then adjourned to meet at Gen Pearson's office, 64 Grant street, on Friday, 21st inst., at 7½ o'clock p. m.

Veterans of 1812.

The soldiers and sailors in the war of 1812, residing in the West, that are in favor of the proposed amendment of the Constitution of the United States, now before the people, are requested to meet in council with the Boys in Blue, in Pittsburgh, Pa., on Tuesday, 25th instant, at nine o'clock A. M. Our headquarters are in City Councils' Messenger's Room, first room on the right hand, third floor of the North Market House, entrance at east end. To use the words of one of our Generals when proposing an invasion of Canada by volunteers in 1812, "Come in squads, come in pairs, or come singly." We trust you will find the latch-strings out in the city for the few of us still remaining, and the Boys' Quartermaster's Department will furnish us transportation for the ceremonies.

LUKE LOOMIS,
Sec'y of Association S. S., Western Pa.

Adjourned.—The Grand Jury yesterday adjourned until Monday morning. They will then resume their labors and finish them very soon.

The Agricultural Fair—Fourth Day—The Fair to be Continued Until Next Week.

Yesterday opened gloomily for the prospects of the Fair, and it appeared as though Providence had refused to smile upon our efforts in exhibiting our industrial resources. During the day, however, the sun shone at intervals, and its corresponding warmth brought out quite a large number of visitors, among whom were a number of ladies. The number of exhibitors was also much larger than on any previous day, and although there was an alternation of rain and sunshine, matters looked more progressive and encouraging.

During the afternoon, the Board of Managers met in accordance with a request of the exhibitors, to decide upon an extension of the Fair, and after a pretty long session, it was decided that the Fair should be continued until Monday evening as the regular Fair, and after that, so long as the exhibitors should choose to leave their goods upon the ground during the continuance of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention.

An improvement has been made in the entrance to the Fair Ground, by strewing saw dust from the Passenger Railway track to the race course. This gives to ladies a dry walk to Floral Hall, after which the paths from one place of exhibition to another are tolerably good. One morning of fine weather will make every portion of the grounds easily accessible.

During the day, quite a large number of Committees were formed for the purpose of deciding in regard to premiums, but as the awards were not made, and in a majority of instances the Committees very much scattered, we were unable to obtain anything like an intelligent report of their action. We cannot allow the opportunity to pass, however, without expressing our thanks to W. H. Guy, Esq., Superintendent of Domestic Hall, for his kindness in even going out of his way to render us all the assistance that lay in his power. With his aid we learned that the following Committees had been appointed, and were engaged in their several duties:

Committee on Wines and Cider—Dr. A. H. Gross, of East Liberty, H. S. Fleming, David R. Coon and Conrad Reiter.

Committee on Fruit—W. S. Bissell and H. S. Fleming

Committee on Stoves—J. F. Keeler, S. J. Adams and D. R. Coon.

As a matter of course there were other committees appointed, but as they were not recorded, nor their specific duties, we will have to defer a publication of them until to-morrow.

LLOYD'S GREAT MAP.

The want of a perfect map has been long felt in this and all other communities. Lloyd's great map of North America has at length met the general wish. It shows the situation of over 3,000,000 places; 50 railways and 60,800 railway stations; 800,000 towns, villages, postoffices, cities, gold and silver mines; 20,000 stations of the Overland, Dispatch, Mail, Telegraph and Emigrant stations and routes, and is altogether a desirable map. It is on exhibition next to Kirk's glass ware.

FLORAL HALL

Displayed its usual attractions. The music alternated between the cupola of the hall and the dancing stand near the centre of the grounds, and had the day been one of even average fairness, the display would have been magnificent. As it was, it was hard to beat, except so far as visitors were concerned.

EXCITEMENT, BENZINE, GAS.

At one time during the day there was considerable excitement manifested on the part of the uninitiated, who thought that a portion of Mechanics Hall was on fire. The following will explain how the matter originated: The Pittsburgh Petroleum Vapor Stove and Gas Light Company have on exhibition a very fine display of their cooking stoves, lamps and other articles for the use of benzine. Among others is a can, which, no matter how often you set fire to the contents, will not explode. Some person, not believing that the can was so thoroughly non-explosive, asked to see it set fire to. This was done at his request. He then said the darn stuff would not burn anyhow. In order to prove to his incredulous mind that it would burn, a small quantity, not to exceed about an ounce, was poured out in mud and water, and a match applied. As a matter of course, in a moment the fluid was in flames. He couldn't see why it should burn out of doors and not in doors. This is the secret of the company. Their non-explosive Aladdin vapor gas lamp, made in both ornamental and plain style, is a perfect curiosity in its way. It will give a better light than gas, and that too at a cost of one-half cent an hour. Their chandeliers are upon the same principle, and are at about the same cost for light. These lamps and chandeliers, let it be borne in mind, do not burn benzine exclusively. Anything from carbon oil up to the lightest benzine, will answer equally as well, but the benzine is the cheapest. While speaking of this light we would say, that while more brilliant than gas—at a less cost—easy of transportation—without smoke or smell—and with many other advantages, it cannot be blown out in the heaviest gale of wind, and when made from naptha the cost is only one dollar per thousand feet. So far as regards its safety, it cannot be questioned, and it is almost impossible for it to get out of order.

The Stoves of the company are nearly of themselves a specialty. They are built plain or ornamental, and will cook anything from a batch of bread or a boiling of eggs, to a roast of beef. The stoves can be set anywhere, and have neither smoke, smell nor ashes. They are calculated for either the parlor, the kitchen, bedroom or office. The cooking of an ordinary sized family can be done on those stoves AT A COST OF FIVE CENTS A DAY. Their prices are very low considering all things. Orders can be left either with the agents at the Fair grounds, or at the sales room, No. 58 Fourth street, or at E. B. McGregors, No. 4 St. Clair street.

METALIC FENCE POSTS.

We yesterday noticed the patent metalic fence post of Messrs. Charles and Joshua Lee. The compositor set up the post office as being Sunday Post Office. It should have been Sandy Post Office, Columbiana county, Ohio. This specimen of posts is within a few yards of the judges' headquarters, and excites well merited attention and admiration. In the vast prairie wastes, especially, where timber is an object, it is invaluable. Anywhere in heavily timbered countries, it is to be preferred on account of its lightness and durability. Messrs. Lee are offering for sale county rights, and we understand that an offer has already been made for Allegheny county.

HOUSE FURNISHING.

In our yesterday's notice of the stock of Mr. T. H. Richards, we neglected to notice several important items, and we will refer to them now. One article was the library chair and ladder. This is a combination that any gentleman will at once see the utility of. It is in one instance a chair. If you desire to reach a book, on a high shelf, it is at once a ladder, by means of raising the back, and then with the means of a spring, it is again a chair. His champion cog wheel roller regulater clothes wringer, with a curved clamp and patent grasshopper spring, is well worthy of attention. We have before said that it would require over a column to enumerate his stock.

SEWING MACHINES—A. M'GREGOR.

If there is anything in this world that has introduced itself in conversation in every circle, it is the matter of sewing machines. Their different uses, prices and capabilities have been discussed so often that we do not feel authorized to enter into a discussion of their different merits. But we must invite attention to the display of needle work done by the Howe and Florence Machines, of which Mr. A. M. McGregor, No. 4 St. Clair street, is the agent. These machines sew equally well through leather or lace, and we do not think that we are at all wrong in saying that the fine display of needle work is equal to any we have yet seen. These machines are in the upper pagoda, nearly opposite to the upper end of Domestic Hall. The display embraces from the letter "A" Howe family machine to the letter "E" or cylinder machines, for heavy work, and from the No. 1 plain Florence, that makes lock and knot stitches, to the No. 6 rosewood, worth $150.

EMPIRE SEWING MACHINE.

We witnessed with much satisfaction yesterday the working of this famous machine. The latest of all the improvements, it combines every requisite for strength and durability. We yesterday witnessed this machine actually sewing through fine lace, and lead, and copper, and lead and sole leather, and copper and sole leather. It is perfectly noiseless,—got up in the best of style, and—but what is the use; see it for yourselves.

A FINE STOVE DISPLAY.

Practical men have practical ideas, and our friends Graff, Hugus & Co. are not behind the age. Since the opening of the Fair they have had on exhibition a display of stoves, grates, ranges and other heating implements. First, we see a very superior lot of wood stoves. With this we will not deal in detail. We pass along through different kinds of heating stoves—the Victor, with a cast combing on the top for retaining heat—in other words a smoke consumer. Of these there are five sizes; a general assortment of grate fronts, parlor and heating stoves, and many other kinds of grates and stoves. Their celebrated double oven Boston range attracts much attention from the fact that it requires no stooping to see what is going on in the ovens, and also for the reason that in a basement kitchen it does not require the use of a gas light to see what is doing in the stove itself. Connected with the range is an upright copper boiler, which furnishes water for a very handsome wash stand and a splendid marble bath-tub, the tub itself being valued at $160.00. Messrs. Jarvis, Halpin & Co., the plumbers, gas and steam fitters who have fitted up this tub, have placed on exhibition something that attracts universal attention. As a specimen of what can be done in the way of something really fine they cannot be excelled. Their establishment is at No. 35 Fourth street, and we commend our friends to the careful examination of their stock. Being practical plumbers, gas and steam fitters, dealers in all kinds of gas fixtures, brass work, lead pipe, steam fittings, sheet lead, pumps and hose. We think they are well supplied with the material to satisfy the most fastidious.

Allegheny Boys in Blue.

An adjourned meeting of the Boys in Blue of the First ward, Allegheny, was held last evening, at Siddons Hall, Col. L. B. Duff in the chair, and Capt. S. C. Schoyer, Secretary pro tem.

On motion, the office of Treasurer was dispensed with to pay contributions to the Treasurer of the "Geary Club."

On motion, the Executive and Finance Committee were authorized to procure fifty lanterns and engage a band for the 25th inst.

Col. Duff was unanimously elected Chief Marshal for the procession.

On motion, adjourned to meet on Saturday at 7 o'clock.

Sudden Death.—Jas. Stratton, an old man sixty-four years of age, died very suddenly yesterday afternoon, at the house of his son-in-law, Mr. Cheeseman, St. Clair st. Coroner Clawson held an inquest and the investigation [illegible]. A verdict in accordance with the facts was rendered.

Criminal Court.

In court yesterday afternoon, after the Hatfield outrage had been disposed of, the case of Amanza Steward, charged with larceny, was taken up. It is alleged that on the 4th of July last the defendant was at the Union Depot, in this city, and while there, stole a carpet sack and a leather valise from Joseph McCabe, a guest at the Union Hotel. The valise and carpet sack contained a variety of valuable clothing, both male and female, and several other articles. While leaving the depot with the valise and satchell in his hand, one of the officers at the depot observed him and captured him and his booty. Stewart was taken to the tombs, and Mr. Thomas Maxwell, of the Depot Hotel, made information before Mayor McCarthy, charging Stewart with larceny, and the accused was committed for trial. The jury yesterday returned a verdict of guilty, but recommended the prisoner to the mercy of the court. The case is a peculiar one. Several years ago the prisoner was a professional thief and pick-pocket hereabouts and served a term in the penitentiary, but subsequently reformed and became an honest, sober and industrious man. He learned a trade and supported his parents by honest labor. Eventually he married, and now has a family of children depending on him. Recently he has resumed his old habits, and is about to receive the reward of his backsliding.

The next case taken up was that of Charles Fisher, indicted for the forgery of check. It is alleged that on the 18th of July last, the defendant presented a check for $1,280 on the Bank of Pittsburgh, to Mr. Cust, the assistant cashier of that bank. Mr. Cust suspected that the check was a forgery and took measures to ascertain whether it were so or not. The check bore the signature of Dennis Leonard, Esq., Director of the Bank. Detaining Fisker on some pretext, Mr. Cust took the check to Mr. Leonard, in another room, and that gentleman pronounced the signature a forgery. A policeman was sent for immediately, and Mr. Cust returned to Fisher. He inquired of the latter where he obtained the check, and he said that he won it at cards on Monday, the 15th of July. Mr. Cust told him then that the check was a forgery. Officer Busha arrived at this time and took Fisher in custody. The prisoner told officer Busha also, that he did not know whether the check was forged or not, but he had won it at a gambling house on the Monday previous. After being committed for trial, while on his way to jail, he told the officer that he had won the check at Johnstown the Monday of the week previous. The jury returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner stated, in his own behalf, that he was innocent of all knowledge of the forgery; that he won the check on a sleeping car on the night of July 9th, from a friend; that the friend said it was dated the 18th to accommodate Mr. Leonard; that the friend was to redeem the check in Philadelphia, and if he did not, Fisher was to come here to get it cashed. Fisher said he was a bricklayer and had a wife and mother in Philadelphia. He was not an habitual gambler and this was the first time he had ever been arrested. The Court considered that all the circumstances were against the prisoner, and he should therefore sentence him to pay a fine of six and a quarter cents and undergo an imprisonment of four years in the Western Penitentiary. The prisoner seemed very much overcome.

Joseph McConnell recently convicted of the larceny of oil barrels, was brought into Court for sentence. Sentence in his case had been deferred from time to time that witnesses to his good character might be obtained. He is a one-armed soldier, and urged yesterday that he had an aged mother, a wife and one child to support, and asked that he be not sentenced until Saturday, and by that time he might have witnesses that would cause the court to make his sentence lighter. The Court, in consideration of the previous postponements, and the fact of his having been up for trial once before, declined to defer the sentence longer, and ordered the prisoner to pay a fine of six and a quarter cents and undergo an imprisonment of two years in the Penitentiary.

Otto Furstiga, convicted some time ago of horse-stealing, was next brought into Court for sentence. He also plead for delay, in the hope that witnesses might be obtained whose testimony would lead to a mitigation of the sentence. Further postponement was refused and the prisoner was sentenced to pay a fine of six and a quarter cents and undergo an imprisonment of two years in the Western Penitentiary. Court then adjourned.

A Domestic Imbroglio.

John Knox—the indefatigable—was arraigned before Alderman Lynch yesterday, to answer a charge of surety of the peace preferred against him by his better half, Margaret. John acknowledged that his chief weakness was a fondness for strong beverages and a desire to display his pugilistic ability on the person of Margaret. The weaker vessel has stood this treatment patiently for a long time, in the vain hope that John—like his illustrious namesake—would reform. But each day matters seemed to grow worse, and finally Margaret was forced to drag her domestic troubles to the bar of justice to seek redress for her wrongs. John entered into an elaborate defence of his policy, and ended by appealing to Margaret's mercy for pardon, with the promise to do better in the future. At first the prosecutrix was unwilling to bend from the pinnacle of her high resolve to conciliate with the partner of her bosom, but finally her better nature came to her aid, and a still small voice down in the depths of her woman's heart urged her to the merciful, and she was, releasing John from thraldom and paying the costs of prosecution from her own private exchequer. They returned to their domicil happier and, it is to be hoped, wiser than when they went forth to invoke the law to adjust their difficulties. Verily, mercy is like the "gentle dew of heaven falling on the parched grass beneath. It blesses him that giveth and he that receiveth it."

An Attempt to Rescue a Prisoner—A "Rough in Limbo."

On Wednesday night, a well known rough named Christopher Bradford, hailing from that delectable quarter Bull Run, took a conspicuous position on Sixth street, and sought to entertain the denizens thereof with a grand display of improved rowdyism, consisting of cat calls—war whoops—and other demonstrations that would do credit to the head chief of the Kiways. The exhibition was brought to a rather abrupt termination, by the arrival of night watchman Mulherran, who arrested Bradford, and was conducting him to the tombs, when a confederate of the prisoner named James Dean, interfered in his behalf, and attempted to rescue him by hurling brickbats and boulders at the officer, who unmindful of the interference, held on to his prisoner, and lodged him safely in durance. An information has been made by officer Mulherran, against Dean, for attempted rescue.

Attempted Burglary in Lawrenceville.

Yesterday morning a desperate but unsuccessful attempt was made by burglars to enter the shoe store of J. M. Cook, on Butler street, in Lawrenceville. Mr. Cook, who lives next door to this building, was out later than usual on Wednesday night, and at half past twelve o'clock he entered the store, turned off the gas, and locked up carefully. On going to the store at an early hour yesterday morning he found that a forcible entrance had been attempted. A wrought-iron plate over the keyhole of the front door, which was fastened down with a padlock, had been partially pried up, the bars fastening the back door bent down, and a ladder put up to a window which the rascals had vainly endeavored to open. They were not discovered, nor is there any clue as to who they are. The same building was entered on the thirteenth of last December by burglars, and a considerable amount of property stolen.

A Filthy Assault.

Robert Anderson appeared before Alderman Taylor, yesterday, and made oath against James Plummer for aggravated assault and battery. The parties reside in Duquesne borough, occupying adjoining houses. On Wednesday evening Plummer came to his home under the influence of liquor, and meeting Anderson, struck him, without any provocation whatever, a severe blow in the breast. Instead of returning the blow, Anderson sat down on a flight of stairs beneath the chamber window of Plummer, who, seeing the advantage, hastened immediately to that apartment, and securing a bucket of filthy slops poured them down upon the person of Anderson, almost suffocating him and ruining his clothing with the disgusting substances. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Plummer.

Committed for Trial.

Tom King, alias, &c., and Wm. Perkins, the counterfeiter whose operations and arrest we noticed yesterday, had a final hearing before United States Commissioner McCandless yesterday morning, and the testimony against them being conclusive, they were committed for trial in default of $10,000 bail each. Commissioner McCandless has the apparatus of the prisoners in his possession. The plate used in printing the face of the fifty cent notes was found between the mattresses of the bed occupied by Perkins and his wife. The other plate was in King's room, in use. This man King is a first class villain. Probably by the time he and his comrade are ready for further operations in their specialty, a new style of currency will be in circulation.

Important to Wool Growers.—A farmer in Washington county, who, last year produced twice as much wool to the head of each sheep as any of his neighbors, was creating a good deal of wonder and merriment as to what was the exact reason for his enormous yield. All sorts of guesses were hit upon. But at last a more knowing one than the rest stretching to his tip toes, and with a look of victory in his countenance, exclaimed: "I'll bet my life on it, he's washed 'em with Dr. Tebbett's Hair Regulator." Dr. Tebbett's Regenerator will make the hair grow on bald heads; will restore its original color, and as a hair dresser it stands without an equal. Sold by the gross, dozen or six bottles at Dr. Keysers 140 Wood street.

Old Copper Mine Revived.—The old copper mine on one of Thos. Wood's farms, in West Fallowfield township, Chester county, worked and abandoned prior to the revolutionary war, is now being opened. The company have opened the old shaft to the depth of thirty feet, and find a side excavation of some fifteen feet in length and the same in width. They have not yet ascertained to what depth the original mine was opened, but are going down to see what is below, and are quite encouraged as they process. Parties from Philadelphia are successfully engaged in digging copper ore at the Gap, at the distance of four or five miles from the above old mine.

A Coming Excitement.—Yesterday morning Major H. B. Vanvoorhees, Proprietor of Oakland Park, received the following dispatch from Milwaukee: [illegible]

Second Ward Boys in Blue.

A large and enthusiastic meeting was held last evening, in Wilkins Hall, and in point of numbers, was certainly the largest gathering that we have seen in the ward since the opening of the campaign. This noble old ward, with the combined efforts of the Geary Club and the Boys in Blue, will roll out, if we are not greatly mistaken, the largest majority that she has ever given in any previous campaign.

The meeting was called to order by the President, Capt. W. D. Cook, who briefly stated the object of the meeting.

Capt. R. Howe offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we attend in a body the torch light procession on Tuesday evening next, and that our uniforms be caps and capes. Adopted.

The following were unanimously appointed to serve on Committees: Music, Capt. W. B. Cook. On Transparency, Capt. Howe, Capt. H. Lowe, Campbell Fortune. Finance, Jno. F. Hunter, Lucien Gray, Capt. H. Lowe.

The roll of the organization will be left at the following stores: Weyman & Bro., J. C. Mattern & G. Hauck, Scotch Hill market; and it is particularly requested that the Boys in Blue, will call and enroll their names as soon as possible.

On motion adjourned to meet at Wilkins' Hall, at half past seven o'clock, on Saturday evening next. The meeting separated with three rousing cheers for the gallant standard bearer Geary, and the White Jacket.

Sent to Dixmont.—On Monday of this week a man whose name could not learn, a fireman in the employ of the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad, met with an accident at New Castle, by which he came very near losing his life. He was standing on the track of the railroad, when a locomotive struck him, knocking him down, cutting his head to a frightful extent, and injuring him so that he became insane. On Wednesday he was brought by his father to the office of Mayor Morrison, in Allegheny, and lodged in the tombs. Yesterday the father came to the office again and started with his son for Dixmont, where the unfortunate young man will remain until he has in some degree recovered.

Glass Blowers' Pic-nic.—We acknowledge an invitation to be present at a Glass Blowers' Pic-nic, to be held to-day at M'Farland's Grove. An excellent band of music will be in attendance, and as the arrangements have been made on the most liberal scale, we can confidently promise an exceedingly pleasant time to all who may attend. As a class the Glass Blowers know how to get up such affairs in a manner not only creditable to themselves, but likewise enjoyable to all who lend their presence.

Frank Mays Coming.—We make the pleasing announcement that the celebrated young California tragedian, Mr. Frank Mays, has made a short engagement with Manager Henderson, and will appear at the Theatre next week. Mr. Mays is represented as one of the most talented tragic actors upon the stage in America, and doubtless will have a great run here where real merit is sure to be appreciated.

Benefit of Kate Estelle.—This evening, at the Academy of Music, the great favorite, Miss Kate Estelle, will be complimented by a grand testimonial benefit, under the auspices of the Edwin Forrest Dramatic Association. An excellent bill is offered, and we trust an overcrowded house will convey to Miss Estelle the pleasing assurance that her merits as an actress are appreciated by the community.

Correction.—Our correspondent "A. B.," in Wednesday's issue, stated the number of prisoners received at the Penitentiary at 144, or an average of 12 per month. We learn from the Warden of the prison that the number recorded during the period mentioned was 206, or an average of 24 per month. This enhances the urgency of an early measure of relief—Legislative or otherwise.

Second Ward, Allegheny.—The Boys in Blue of this ward will assemble at the public school house, this evening, for the purpose of making arrangements for participating in the Convention and the public demonstration of next Tuesday night.

THE CONGRESSIONAL PLAN.

NUMBER THREE.

SEC. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President or Vice President, or hold an office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any State, who having previously taken an oath as member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; but Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

The Constitution, as it stands, defines treason, and the laws, as they stand, prescribe its punishment. "Treason is the highest crime known to the laws." It has caused six hundred thousand men to perish in the last five years. It has maimed as many more. It has caused the desolation of large districts of country. It has laid vast burdens of public debts upon the people. Traitors are the vilest of criminals. We speak of traitors against a free government, who, beaten at the ballot-box, refuse to submit to the will of the majority, and take up arms, hoping to accomplish by force what they failed to achieve by other means.

Of the five millions of rebels, who recently made war on the government, not one has suffered the punishment due to his crimes, unless falling in battle may be accounted such punishment. Nor is there a reasonable expectation that any of them will be punished. When the democrats declaim in favor of "The Constitution as it is, and the laws as they are," they clearly do not include those portions we have just referred to; and the republicans, leaning to lenity and willing to be magnanimous, are ready to take compassion on the vanquished. This third section, if it shall be passed, doubtless provides all the punishment to which the rebels will be subjected. It is so moderate as to challenge the admiration of mankind.

It is worth while to examine, first its negative side. Not a rebel is excluded by it from the ballot box. All who were or would be voters, except for participating in the rebellion, are left so still. Nor is their right of voting circumscribed to particular and minor offices. They can vote for candidates for all offices whatever.

What the third section provides is that all persons who have held offices, making it necessary for them to take oaths to support the Constitution of the United States, who have taken such oaths, and have violated them, shall not be admitted to offices of honor or trust again; but shall, in the language of ANDREW JOHNSON before his fall, "take back seats." This is strictly analagous to proceedings in the Courts of Justice. When a man has been convicted of perjury, he is ever after excluded from the right to give testimony. The presumption is that he cannot be trusted; that the rights of the public or of individuals ought not to be determined by what he might depose.

Each rebel that held an office covered by the specifications of this third section, committed perjury. Many of them when they kissed the Evangelists had already planned treason, and intended to execute it. Many of them took the oath to support the Constitution over and over again while they were conspiring against the government. Nay, some of them went so far as to use their official power to abstract arms and ammunition from the government, and make them over to the insurgents. Others conspired against the national credit, while others still dispersed the army and navy, on false pretences, so that they might not be on hand to render efficient aid to the national cause when the hour of trial arrived.

Surely, it is not harsh or vindictive to say these persons shall not have the chance to repeat their perjuries. The instinct of self-protection points to the exclusion of these men from office, as one of the readiest, most efficient, and least objectionable remedies that can be provided. The present attitude of the Southern people attests the necessity of this provision. It is notorious they are not selecting for office men whose sympathies were confessedly on the side of the government during the revolt; nor yet men whose loyalty was clearly overborne by the tide of treason that swept over these States; but men who were most conspicuous and hearty in stirring up strife, in embittering the conflict, in imparting to it obstinacy and ferocity, and in resorting to all manner of barbarous measures, not warranted by the rules of civilized warfare. It is not singular the rebels evince a disposition to be true to those who were true to them. The singularity is that any men who feel a sentiment of loyalty to the Union should not proclaim that these leading rebels ought to be excluded from public trusts by the operation of permanent, organic law.

Moreover, the necessity for a rule of this sort is confirmed by the readiness with which leading rebels make haste to renew their oaths of fidelity to the Government—even taking in repeated instances, the Test Oath without flinching, thus showing that as they did not scruple to incur the guilt of perjury in going out of the Union, so they do not hesitate to incur it again in getting back. It is monstrous to think of trusting such men, and it is lenity to the verge of criminality to allow them thus carelessly to take fresh guilt upon themselves.

But this section does not make the exclusion of these men from office perpetual. It recognizes the fact that repentance wipes out all offences; that however deeply a man may have offended, either by premeditation or a sudden stress of temptation, genuine sorrow for the wrong cancels his criminality, and justifies his restoration to confidence and favor. This is one of the great principles on which the Christian Church is founded. It is not a community of men and women who have never offended; but who have been convinced of the wrongs they have done, and fully resolved to abandon them. Hence, in this matter of treason, the authority is given to Congress, when a man, or class of men, shall give evidence of loyalty, to remove the disability under which they are placed, and restore them to all the rights, immunities and privileges of complete citizenship.

What more than this the rebels or their friends have a right to ask it is difficult to see. To grant more than this would be to exhibit not generosity, but weakness; to prepare the way for, and to invite, fresh calamities, on the pretext of remedying calamities already surmounted, and which have spent their force.

FUSION—CONFUSION.

Three months ago the engineers of the Conglomerate or Fusion movement, which has for its object the support of the President's Policy, thought their plans so well laid that success could not elude their grasp. So long as they confined their conferences with each other to denunciations of the Radicals, and to the promulgation of specious generalities, susceptible of various interpretations, according to the idiosyncrasies of different individuals, there seemed to be an identity in their plans, and a coherence in their principles. But, so soon as it became necessary to descend from the regions of rhetorical declamation, to decide on precisely what ground they should all stand, to what ends they should mutually contribute, and what measures should be resorted to, dire repugnances were disclosed, bitter jealousies sprang up, unity was at an end, and the whole movement tended rapidly to Confusion.

In New York, for illustration, every thing went on smoothly enough until the President began his Progress and the State Convention assembled to present candidates. Speedily the Evening Post, the Commercial Advertiser, the Herald and the Times, became clamorous with protests and remonstrances. Each had its peculiar cause of dissatisfaction and taking all their complaints as valid, association with the Republicans was evidently more congenial than with the Democrats. The nomination of Mr. HOFFMAN for Mayor in violation of agreement, led to a serious rupture, and there are now many indications that the conservatives are seriously thinking of drawing back to their old association.

As a matter of course the Democrats are disappointed, and assume to be indignant. The World charges Mr. RAYMOND, and the men who side with him, with bad faith. The Freeman's Journal, the organ of the Catholic democracy, is decidedly severe. It says:

> "Mr. Henry J. Raymond, editor of the Daily Times, Chairman of the Black Republican National Committee, Congressman, and late co conspirator with Thad. Stevens—voting nearly every time under Stephens' whip, for Stevens' measures, is said to be the author of the 'Resolutions' and the 'Address.' His own newspaper—the Times—says he is the author. The 'Address' contains a number of good principles well stated, which Raymond never held, neither as an old Whig, nor as a Black Republican. The 'Address' announces principles that we believe Raymond never understood sufficiently either to affirm or deny. There are in it, also, assertions too pointed ever to have been conceived or uttered intelligently by him—for his forte is in using many words, without any point. The 'Address' is a choleraic effusion. It contains propositions contradictory and incompatible with each other. On analysis, we find lumps of undigested beef and slices of cucumber, spoonsful of soup and copious swallows of buttermilk—and a 'painless diarrhea' of "rice water discharges," in the way of words!"

Nor does the Journal stop here. It goes on to characterize in earnest but just terms the President's Policy, and to show what the Democrats really think of it. On these points it declares;

> The "President Johnson policy," is a paliative, and nothing more. It is not based on operative principles of a positive order. It is the negation of a negation—an opposition to what is itself an opposition to the true genius and traditional life of these States that are, as a fact, merging into one nation.
> But a palliative is better than nothing. A palliative may save me for the present. It is not to be despised. It is as a resort in a dire extremity that we urge every effort to be made, in the coming elections, in support of the "policy" of President Johnson. It does not, in any respectable degree, fill out the programme of free government, as maintained by Jeffersonian Democrats of old. But it may carry us over a dangerous pass, and give us time to prepare something better. That is why every old Democrat—every true lover of free government—ought to struggle and work for the present support of President Johnson, as if he was in very deed the standard bearer of our principles!"

In other words, neither President JOHNSON nor his Policy represent democratic ideas, but are to be tolerated and used simply as helps to break down the Republican organization. That accomplished—if, indeed, it can be—the democrats will show what they intend, and march up to it by the shortest path.

But, not alone in New York does the JOHNSON movement already give signs of decrepitude. In the Cleveland Convention there are indications of dissatisfaction and unrest. The administration programme for the organization of the body was defeated, and a degree of independence evinced, on other points, which show that many who prematurely committed themselves to the movement are tired of it and ready to secede.

THE HON. HORACE MAYNARD, of Tennessee, is a native of Massachusetts. The Governor of Massachusetts, introducing him to an audience a few evenings since, in Boston, said:

"The gentleman whom I shall first introduce to you is at the present moment by your vote, Mr. Senator, and by the vote of the loyal members of Congress, a member of the Congress of the United States. I have known him longer than you have, fellow-citizens. I have known him under relations and ties to which you are strangers. He whom I shall now introduce, and who before, as now, has been a member of the Congress of the United States, is a native of my own county of Worcester. I greet him, therefore, to-night, as few of you can greet him. I greet him with the warmth and heart of a brother. He was a member of a collegiate institution with me thirty years ago. In the distribution of the honors of that college it fell to me to be his monitor. I rejoice to-night that he shall be my monitor. I have great pleasure to introduce to you Hon. Horace Maynard, of Tennessee."

—THE Richmond Enquirer, of the 6th inst., contains an editorial two columns in length to prove that the Southern States possessed the right to secede in 1861, and that the only "traitors" in the late war were those who fought against secession. The following extract shows in what spirit the "situation" is "accepted:"

> Whether, therefore, as a believer in the constitutional right of secession, or as concurring in the undisputed proposition that the Federal Government is constitutionally forbidden to invade or coerce a State, we claim that in no sence, legal or moral, can the charge of "treason to the people of Virginia or other Southern States, in connection with the late war, be sustained. The treason, if treason there was—the "revolution," if revolution were attempted—were with those who, without law and against law, sent destroying hosts of invaders into the Southern States to overturn their liberties; and not with those who exercised the undoubted constitutional right of resisting actual or imminent invasion.

THE UNION REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

Amendment of the Constitution of the United States, which Passed Congress at its late Session by the Constitutional Majority of two-Thirds, and is now Before the States for Ratification.

Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, two-thirds of both Houses concurring, That the following article be proposed to the Legislatures of the several States as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which, when ratified by three-fourths of the said Legislatures, shall be valid as a part of the Constitution, namely:

ARTICLE—SECTION 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States, and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of the citizens of the United States. Nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

SECTION 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed; but whenever the right to vote at any election for electors of President and Vice President, or for United States Representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in that State.

SECTION 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, elector of President or Vice President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any State, who, previously taking an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; but Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

SECTION 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for the payment of pensions and bounties for service in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned, but neither the United States nor any State, shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave, but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be held illegal and void.

BE ON THE ALERT: DANGER IS AT HAND!—This has been a sickly season. The medical faculty prophesy evils in the future. They think pestilence is on the wing for America. Suppose this to be true, what is the best defense against it? REDOUBLED NERVOUS VIGOR. This is the only protection against PANIC, as well as against the PRINCIPLE OF INFECTION. Why do not those who predict the epidemic propose an adequate preventive? There is one; a tonic, nervine and alterative, competent to shield the system against the subtile elements of disease, whether they float with the winds from distant lands, or rise like vapor from our own soil, or are incorporated with the universal fluid. This ONE PREVENTIVE, of which there is no duplicate among the compounds either of the Old World or the New, is HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Remember that it is a specific for all the complaints which lay the system open to visitations of deadly epidemics. If you are dyspeptic, it renews the vigor of your digestive powers, gives you appetite, and restores your cheerfulness. If you are nervous, it invigorates every fibre of your nervous system, from the base of the brain, where it begins, to the extremities, where it terminates. If you are bilious, it disciplines your unruly liver and brings the action of that organ into harmony with the laws of health. It is, in short, an invigorant and alterative so powerful that Nature, with Hostetter's Bitters for her ally, may bid defiance alike to native malaria and foreign infection. If this enemy we hear of, this disease which is desolating Europe, is really bound hitherward, it behooves the PRUDENT TO PUT ON THEIR ARMOR, to clothe themselves with invulnerability as far as human means will permit, by preparing the system for resistance with this pure vegetable antidote. se18:

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON FIRST PAGE.)

The Hatfield Outrage—Second Day of the Trial—Verdict of Guilty—Heavy Sentence.

Court opened at nine o'clock, Judges Sterrett, Mellon and Brown on the Bench.

After the names of the jury had been called, the trial of the Hatfield criminals was taken up and the testimony for the Commonwealth resumed:

John Paddock, sworn—Live at Hatfield; saw Fanny Smith on the morning of Sunday, July 29th, lying on the ground near Mr. Donnelly's house, in the lane leading from the Butler road to the railroad; she was near dead, I thought, being unable to rise; she spoke a few rambling words, but I could not understand them; she had no shoes on, and her hat was gone, her hair lying out on the ground; her clothing was very much disordered; I brought some water from Mr. Jones' and threw in her face; afterwards Mr. Donnelly and I carried her to his house; Kinzie, McMillan and Welsh were all near the spot; McMillan attracted my attention in the first place by whistling to me, and asked me if there was any water about; said there was a girl there whom they had found almost dead. After I brought the water the defendants went away.

Cross examined by Mr. Moffatt—Saw the three defendants together several times before. Did not see Fanny Smith at all before Sunday morning; McMillan showed me the girl in the first place; Peter Gormley came there in about five minutes; don't remember that the defendants had any conversation together; the defendant did not say anything that I could understand. Her bonnet and shoes lay together on the grass near by.

By Mr. Owens—Kinzie and Welsh were sitting fifty or sixty yards away from the girl when I first saw them; heard no noise during the night.

Peter Gormley sworn—Live with my mother in Collins township. On the Sunday morning mentioned a girl came and told me that a girl lay almost dead in McCandless' lane; I went there and found Paddock and McMillan pouring water on a girl under the trees. (Witness then described the condition of the girl as before given). I left while the girl still lay there, and the defendants went away.

Cross examined by Mr. Marshall—I did not see the defendants at all that morning before that; I saw them afterwards, and they told me about the shooting at Holmes.

Thos. Donnelly, Esq., sworn—Live in Collins township; the girl was found near my house on the Sunday morning mentioned; was notified of the fact of the girl being there by my wife; the girl was raving when I went there, and every time we would touch her, she would say: "O boys let me be," "don't take that knife to me;" &c.; tried to get her to speak, but she would only rave; she could not set up at all, and we carried her to my house; I went for Dr. Robison immediately and he came to attend her; the condition of the girl's clothing was very much disordered, and her whole appearance very hard; I thought she was dying; her shoes, when I saw them, stood near by, tied together; did not notice any wounds on the person of the girl; she has remained at my house from that time to this; for about four weeks she was unable to get out of her bed; recently she has been able to be at work, a very little; it was three or four days after the occurrence before she was able to speak coherently, and give any account of herself; after this she made complaint to me about the outrage that had been committed on her; we refused to let any one visit her, because we feared the effects of any conversation, she was so very low; never saw the girl before.

Cross examined by Mr. Moffatt—Live only a short distance from where the girl was found; Mr. Paddock was the only person with the girl when I found her. He was bathing her with water. No other men were in the neighborhood at all that I saw; am not acquainted with any of the defendants except Kinzie. The lane is very little used for travel, and it is closed at one end; did not see any of the defendants that morning; know Kinzie, but am not friendly with him; don't admire him, or desire to cultivate his acquaintance; do not like to have my orchard robbed; think he might commit a rape or other crime if he thought there were no dangers to be apprehended.

Dr. Robison, sworn—Saw Fanny Smith first at Mr. Donnelly's house, on the morning of Sunday, July 29th. She was lying on her back with a little blood working out of her mouth. She had the appearance of a dying woman. On a close examination I thought she might recover. Her face was swollen and of a purple color, and her general appearance was very bad indeed. She seemed unconscious of everything. I ordered stimulants for her, and had her placed in a room up stairs; continued to attend her regularly for two weeks. She was in an exceedingly critical condition. On the second day I made an examination of her person. There was a mark on her neck as of a scratch; a bruise on her left side; her face and lips were much swollen; examined her chest closely and found her right lung injured. The injuries were evidently produced by external violence and exposure.

Cross-examined by Mr. Moffat—The same symptoms in the case of the girl are sometimes seen in cases of epilepsy. Don't think the external wounds would have produced the frothing at the mouth. Great excitement would induce epileptic fits.

Mrs. Tanney, sworn—Live at Hatfield. Recollect the finding of the girl on the Sunday morning spoken of. Kinzie was not at my house on Sunday or Monday. (This was evidently an "unwilling witness.")

Mrs. Hannah Donaldson, sworn—Recollect hearing of this occurrence. On the Monday evening after I had a conversation with Kinzie about it; I advised him to go away on account of the scrape. He said he would not go, for the girl had been willing to go with him, and he would give himself up in the morning. As he went away he said something about making a pair of shoes for me when he would come out of the Penitentiary. I keep an eating house in Hatfield. The officers called several times to subpoena me, but I was away from home. (These questions were asked to prove that the witness, who was brought in on a process yesterday, had kept purposely out of the way.)

Cross-examined—Kinzie was drunk when he talked with me.

Officer A. J. Moon, sworn—Am a member of the Mayor's police; arrested Mr. Welsh on the Monday after the occurrence, and Kinzie the next morning; I had a conversation with Welsh; asked him who was with him, but held out no inducements to answer; know of no inducements being held out; he told me that he understood that Brahe was accused of this affair, and on Brahe's account he would speak the truth; Brahe was innocent and he, (Welsh) and two other young men were the guilty ones. He named the others, (the witness was not permitted to repeat the names mentioned.]

Ward Nicholson, sworn—Am clerk for the Mayor of Pittsburgh; recollect this occurrence. On the day the prisoners were taken out to be identified, I had some conversation with one of them. Held out no inducement for them to speak; there were the Mayor, six or seven officers and myself went with the prisoners to Mr. Donnelly's. (Witness here described the taking up of the prisoners and others for identification.) (Defense objected.) Kinzie remarked, "I knew it, I was there." Heard nothing concerning this matter. I arrested McMillan, and when we were coming in I told him I wanted him as a witness in a case. He said to himself "I was afraid it was something else."

Cross-examined—I told McMillan that he was wanted as a witness before the Coroner in the Brahe case.

Arthur Chislett, sworn—I live at the Allegheny cemetery, Passed through McCandless' Lane at about a quarter of twelve on the Saturday night mentioned; Saw three men and one woman there; As I came up two men crossed from Mr. Donnelly's side to the other and sat down by the fence, on the opposite side from them I saw a woman lying on the ground, and a man sitting beside her; Heard a little groan from the side where the woman lay; I passed on without stopping.

Cross examined—I recognized none of the parties; Nothing was said to me.

Officer John Wrigley sworn—Am an officer of the Mayor's police; Arrested M. Welsh. Had a conversation with him the morning after the arrest; He said that he, McMillan and Kinzie were the men that committed the rape on the woman; I pointed to Kinzie and asked if he was one, and he said yes.

Cross examined—This conversation occurred in the watch house; I took a basin of water, and said "you have got into a pretty bad scrape." This was all I said to him, and he told me what I have stated.

Mr. Duff stated that an officer who was to testify for the Commonwealth was absent, and they would now close with the privilege of calling him, when he returned.

THE DEFENSE.

The case for the defense was opened by W. M. Moffatt, Esq., in a brief address to the jury. The defense would be able to prove, by the conductor of the car in which Kinzie and the girl rode to town and back, that she rode with him in a loving manner, kissing him repeatedly.

Abraham Gross sworn:—Am a conductor on the Citizens' Passenger Railway; on Saturday evening, July 29th, McMillan and Kinzie were passengers in my car at nine o'clock at night; they got on the car at Lawrenceville and had the prosecutrix, Fanny Smith, with them. (Witness was asked as to the conduct of the parties on the car. Counsel for Commonwealth objected. Objections of Commonwealth sustained by the Court.)

Mr. Anderson sworn:—Was present at the conversation between Fanny Smith and the Mayor; I asked her if she screamed or made an outcry at the time of the outrage; she said she did not, because she was afraid; was present when the two first men were brought before the girl for identification; I asked Mr. Donnelly at one time if Miss Smith had given him the names of the defendants. (Counsel for Commonwealth objected, and witness was dismissed.)

Jacob Wainwright, sworn—Reside at Lawrenceville. Know John Kinzie; know nothing of his character.

Samuel Copeland, sworn—Reside at Lawrenceville: have known Mr. Welsh three or four months; know nothing of his character, whatever; never saw him away from the shop until I saw him here.

Samuel Alexander, sworn—Reside at Hatfield; have known Mr. Welsh for about a year. He has always been quiet and steady so far as I know; have lived in the house with Mr. McMillan for some time. He has always been peaceable and quiet so far as I know.

John Anderson, sworn—Live at Hatfield; know Mr. Welsh. He was always a quiet civil man at the shop; know nothing further.

Samuel Reynolds, sworn—Live at Lawrenceville; know Kinzie; never heard his character called in question: know nothing further; know M'Millan; have never heard him spoken against before.

Cross-examined—Kinzie would get on sprees, but never knew him to be in any serious scrape.

John Hughes sworn—Reside in Hatfield; know McMillan; know nothing of [illegible] character.

Henry Brahe sworn—Knew Helligan when he was alive. On the Saturday night mentioned he and I were not near the lane by Mr. Donnelly's house in the presence of the defendants and Fanny Smith. The defendants did not fire at Helligan. [Commonwealth objected. Other men might have assumed the names of Helligan and Brahe, therefore no contradiction was made out. Objection sustained.] Helligan went to Lawrenceville at about eleven o'clock. I was not with him. I did not see him when he came back. I did not go back at all after about nine o'clock.

Cross-examined—There are no other boys named Brahe in that neighborhood. I was tight that night and was unable to go away after I got to Mr. Donnelly's. I do not know what time this was, but the girls say it was about nine o'clock. I was not so drunk but I could have known if I had heard or seen any shooting. Helligan and I had had a squabble with a party before we went to Holmes; don't know anything about the party we fought with or when or where it was.

REBUTTING TESTIMONY.

Benedict Meidhoff sworn—Live at Lawrenceville; am a barber; saw Helligan on the night mentioned. He came to my shop and was telling me about a difficulty he had had. [Counsel for defense objected. The objection was sustained and the witness was dismissed.]

The testimony in the case here closed. The case was submitted to the jury without argument, and the Court took a recess until two o'clock.

THE CHARGE, THE VERDICT AND THE SENTENCE.

On the re-assembling of the Court at two o'clock, Judge Mellon addressed a brief charge to the jury, instructing them that the only question they had to consider was the question of facts. If the facts proved that the defendants had forcibly outraged the person of the prosecutrix, it made no difference what her previous relations had been towards them, or any one of them. Their considerations concerned only the time at which the alleged outrage was committed. The jury then retired.

The prisoners had been returned to the box, and sat, with only a slight change of demeanor, till the result of the deliberation on which depended, in so great a measure, the fate of their lives. They are all young men, each apparently about twenty-three or twenty-four years of age. They have the appearance of average young men among the working classes, and would not be selected, from their appearance, as the ones likely to perpetrate so horrible a crime as this with which they are charged. Their demeanor was, for the most part, dignified, McMillan alone showing an undue levity and exhibiting a degree of braggadocio in his demeanor.

After an absence of about fifteen minutes the jury re-entered the Court room. The prisoners were ordered to stand up, and the jury rendered their verdict—"Guilty." The prisoners were all exceedingly pale, and even McMillan grew white, and seemed to realize the gravity of his situation. None of them evinced any other symptoms of emotion, and soon regained their former demeanor.

After a short interval the prisoners were ordered to rise and receive the sentence of the Court. Judge Mellon, before delivering the sentence, addressed a few words to the convicted men. They had been convicted, after a full, fair and impartial trial, during which they had been permitted to bring all their witnesses to the stand, of a most gross and revolting crime. The evidence adduced showed not one mitigating circumstance. The men who could perpetrate so horrible an outrage must have lost every quality of manhood. They had a poor, helpless victim in their hands, entirely at their mercy, and they utterly disregarded her appeals for mercy, but satisfied their passions in a most fiendish manner. They had even gone lower than the brutes, for while their victim lay insensible from their violence they had continued to satiate their brutal passions. The law provided a punishment for such a crime, but that punishment was limited, otherwise it would be fitting to exceed its present prescriptions in this case. If ever there was a case deserving the utmost severity of the law, this was one. Therefore the sentence of the Court would be that each of the prisoners pay a fine of $1,000 and undergo solitary confinement in the Western Penitentiary for a term of fifteen years.

A PAINFUL SCENE.

As this severe sentence was pronounced each prisoner showed momentary emotion, but McMillan and Kinzie immediately assumed a "bluff" demeanor, and marched with a swagger out of the court room. Welsh alone showed that he was decently impressed by his fate.

The mothers of the defendants were in the court room weeping, and when the sentence was delivered, were so overcome with agitation that they had to be assisted into the rotunda. There they gave way to the wildest lamentations. Mrs. McMillan in particular seemed to have lost all power of self-control, and alternately upbraided the "bad man" who had sentenced her boy and torn her only support away from her, and weeping that she could not be locked up with him, or die there for him. Mrs. Kinzie and Mrs. Welsh were less demonstrative, but none the less affecting in their grief. At length they were all assisted out of the court house and taken to their homes. The prisoners were remanded and will be taken over to the penitentiary.

Stole a Shovel.—John Quinnlin was before Alderman Johns, yesterday, charged with the larceny of a coal shovel from the stable of Jas. Gibbon, in Collins township. The accused was arrested, but after a hearing was discharged, the evidence being of a doubtful character, and such as would not warrant the magistrate in holding Quinnlin for trial.

A Nice House for Somebody is advertised in our columns to-day, admirably located, contiguous to markets, churches, schools, meetings, &c.; completely and elegantly furnished; everything ready for immediate housekeeping without the usual vexatious modes of preparation.

Special Caution.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has become so popular that various parties have put out articles calling them Mrs. Winslow's. Please take notice that the Mrs. Winslow of the Soothing Syrup is not connected with any other article. [illegible]

VERY LATEST NEWS.

Great Race Expected Near New York—Telegraph Enterprise in Brazil—Particulars of the Battle of the Platte.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Asteroid and Kentucky, believed to be the best race horses ever bred in the country, will certainly run next Tuesday at Fort Ham, near this city, mile heats, for [illegible] and a gold cup.

Advices from the Rio Janeiro state that the Chamber of Commerce of that city has resolved to urge the Imperial government to immediately close the contract with Mr. Perry M'D. Collins, for connecting the United States with Brazil by telegraph, which it was hoped would be accomplished in two years.

The following are the particulars of the great battle between the Paraguayans and the Allies on the Platte, on the 16th and 18th of July: The affair arose from a determination of the Allies to dislodge the Paraguayans from the position they were fortifying on a hill, which would have enabled them to endanger the Allied left and rear. The Paraguayans were surprised and driven out at daybreak on the 16th by a brigade of Brazilians after a short fight. The victors then advanced with the assistance of the Paraguayan's works in the rear, but were received with such a heavy fire that they were forced to abandon the attempt and confine themselves to the defence of the works they had taken.

This was successfully done notwithstanding two fierce attacks were made by the Paraguayans and a storm of missiles was poured on the ground. The allies suffered considerable loss, and the troops under fire were relieved several times during the day. The next day passed without fighting, but a reconnoisance made to uncover the Payaguayan's movements and works was charged into, and a general assault of the next line of the Paraguayan fortifications, which was carried, but recovered and again retaken. But after very heavy fighting, which involved almost all the forces on both sides, the allied commanders recognised that success in that direction would be too dearly bought, and their troops were recalled, retiring in good order without being pursued. The Paraguayans, however, made a dash with cavalry on the Argentine flank on the right, but were repulsed, and fighting ceased on both sides.

The works captured on the 16th remain in the possession of the allies. This was strengthened with heavy cannon and is likely to be of great service to the allies. The Paraguayans continued, up to the 18th, to send down torpedoes, and on the 14th and 15th two explosions occurred so near the leading vessel of the allied fleet, as to shake her severely. A boat was blown up and eight persons killed.

The second Brazilian army, 9,000 strong, under Porto Alegre, had been incorporated with the allied forces. Two or three thousand convalescents had also joined. Further reinforcements have also been demanded and expected from Brazil, and the Argentine provinces.

It is expected that the Argentine Congress will increase the export and import duties.

A Brazilian transport steamer had been lost in the Platte. All the people on board of her were saved, as well as 150,000 sovereigns.

There was a dreadful fire in Rua Da Tartanda, Rio de Janeiro on the 23d of August, owing to the explosion of some gunpowder kept on the premises. Three persons were killed and several seriously wounded.

Coffee at Rio was more active; sales for the fortnight, 85,000 bags at an advance of 200@300 Reis per arroba on the finest grades. Supplies from the interior are limited, and the stock reduced to 40,000 bags, a large portion of which is inferior. The new crop is estimated at 2,800,000 bags. The market closed quiet at the following quotations: Washed, 7,600@9,200; Superior, 7,200@7,600; Good firsts, 5,800@6,900.

Mass Meeting of Soldiers and Sailors at Syracuse, N. Y.—Permanent Organization Effected.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., September 20.—The Soldiers and Sailors Mass Convention met at Shakspeare Hall at noon to-day. Secretary of State Major General Francis C. Barlow called the Convention to order. The Convention was opened with prayer by Brevet Brig. Gen. Van Petten. General Barlow nominated as temporary chairman Adjutant C. B. Lansing, of Auburn, who, on assuming the chair, delivered a sarcastic and stirring speech. He adverted to the threats of war and expressed the readiness of the loyal soldiers and sailors to maintain the right in the future as they had in the past. If war must come they are ready for it. The wounded and disabled delegates of the State Union, which met yesterday, were invited to seats upon the platform.

A Committee of three from each judicial district to nominate officers for a permanent organization was appointed.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 20.—The Convention of the Soldiers and Sailors State Union was called to order by President McKeon at one o'clock. The report of the Committee on Officers of the Union for the ensuing year was as follows: President—Col. James B. McKeon. Vice Presidents—Col. E. B. Fowler, Maj. Putnam Fieles, Col. Clarke, Lieut. Col. E. G. Morris, Capt. Geo. M. Ross' Lieut. Col. Armault Comeon, Capt. J. J. Randell, Lieut. Col. Geo. W. Warren, Col. D. J Carr, Gen. Bradley Winslow, Capt. T. D Stow, Maj. Gen. H. A. Barnum, Adj. E. B. Lansing, Capt. Chas. Tracy, Gen. N. M. Crane, Maj. Giles H. Hedden, Maj. Jos. Lowe, Jr.

Col. F. J. Bramhall presented the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Executive Committee be required and empowered to appoint a sub committee to solicit and receive contributions for the purpose of erecting suitable headstones over the graves of New York soldiers buried in our national cemeteries in substitution and so replace the wooden ones now in use. A vote of thanks was tendered the President, Col. J. B. McKeon, and the Union adjourned sine die.

McClure, Davis county; Secretary of State, Colonel McQuigg; Auditor, N. S. Goss; Treasurer, Col. Walker; Attorney General, Ross Burns; Superintendent of Public Instructions, Joseph H. Bond; Chief Justice, Nelson Cobb; Congress, General L. W. Blair, of Fort Scott.

All the nominees, except Goss and Cobb, are Republicans.

Progress of the Southern Loyalists.

ERIE, PA., Sept. 20.—A part of the Southern Loyalist party arrived this morning and addressed a large meeting. Mr. Brownlow was very ill and failed in an attempt to speak at the depot. He was so weak as to require assistance to stand and passed directly on to Cleveland. The rest of the party arrived this afternoon, and all passed on under charge of a reception committee from Cleveland, headed by Mayor Chapin, at Conneaut, Ashtabula and Panesville. Large crowds greeted the loyalists with cheers and bonfires.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 20.—The train arrived in a pelting rain. The party was met by an immense crowd and escorted to the Hotel by bands of music, transparencies and a torch light procession, amid fire works and shouting. A meeting is arranged for to-morrow, which promises to be a large one.

From the Republic of Columbia—Domestic Trouble Anticipated.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—The Herald's Panama correspondent says: Several of the Columbian State authorities had threatened to resist the enforcement of Masquera's orders, and domestic trouble was anticipated.

Favorable concessions had been granted by the Columbian Government to the projected railroad across the Isthmus.

Montero, the deposed Admiral of the Peruvian navy, was still in custody, Salcido, the Chilian commander, having charge of the navies of both powers, and Tucker, the ex-rebel, who was appointed to supercede Montero, having a subordinate command under him.

No Immediate Prospect of Getting the Additional Bounties—The Uniform of General and Lieutenant General—Internal Revenue Appointments.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—There is no prospect of the immediate payment of the bounties authorised by Congress at the late session. It is estimated that about forty thousand claims are on file, with that number increasing at the rate of four or five hundred per day.

The official army order has been issued prescribing the uniform of the General and the Lieutenant General as follows: For the General, the same as for a Major General, except that on the coat there shall be two rows of twelve buttons, each on the breast, placed by fours, and on the shoulder-straps and epaulets four silver stars. For the Lieutenant General the same as for a Major General, except that on the shoulder straps and epaulets there shall be three silver stars.

The following Internal Revenue appointments have been made since the 18th instant: Jesse J. Alexander, Collector of the Seventh District of Indiana; Frank Baker, Assessor of the Ninth District of Ohio; Andrew S. Haladay, Assessor, Nebraska; Ephraim Williams, Collector, Fourth District of Wisconsin; J. G. Knight, Assessor, Third District of Wisconsin; Elias O. Colkins, Collector, Second District of Wisconsin; Sanford Jarned, Collector, Fourth District of Iowa; Sylvester S. Main, Collector, Second District of Illinois; J. Woodrow Warner, Assessor, Sixth District of Ohio; Joseph W. Friezeld, Collector, Fourth District of Ohio.

Although months have passed since the Senate confirmed General Dix as Minister to the Hague, that gentleman has not either accepted or declined the appointment.

North Carolina State Convention—Constitutional Amendment Endorsed.

RALEIGH, N. C., September 20.—At a State meeting of unconditional Union men of North Carolina, held in Raleigh, to-day, Hon. Alfred Dockery was nominated for Governor. The Constitutional Amendment was unanimously endorsed. It is the only issue between the two parties of the State. Ex-Governor Holden, who was chosen President, delivered an able address heartily endorsing the candidate and the platform.

Letters from distinguished Union men were received from different parts of the State, pledging their support to the movement.

Dockery stands boldly on the Howard amendment and the whole basis, which Gov. Holden says will give him a large majority in the western part of the State, and with the vote of the rest of the State, may elect him.

NEW OPERA HOUSE.

C. D. HESS - - - - Director.

BENEFIT OF THE JOHNSTOWN SUFFERERS.

AN EXTRA GRAND MATINEE,

On Saturday Afternoon, Sept. 22d.

THE ENTIRE PROCEEDS TO BE CONTRIBUTED to the fund for the relief of the unfortunate victims of the late FEARFUL CALAMITY AT JOHNSTOWN.

An excellent Performance will be given, presenting nearly all the favorites of the FINE OPERA HOUSE COMPANY. Admission for this occasion, FIFTY CENTS to all parts of the house, except the Gallery, which will remain as usual, 25cents.

Tickets may be procured at PITTOCK'S, GILDENFENNY'S, AIKEN'S, HUNT'S and MINER'S Bookstores; at the Monongahela House, St. Charles and Merchants' Hotels, and of the Mayor's Police Officers.

In the earnest desire of the Director to contribute as great a sum as possible to this laudable object, and in proposing the scheme, he feels confident of a successful result, for there are no doubt enough already stimulated by published accounts of the wants and sufferings now existing among the more needy victims, to a desire to add to the receipts the trifle for which they are asked in this way, to fully meet the most sanguine expectations.

It is not, as may be supposed, a desire to take undue credit, or make capital, that the director has proposed this scheme, his main object being to do what is within his power, without serious detriment to himself, to alleviate the sufferings of unfortunate fellow-creatures. The result of the enterprise will be published in the papers of Monday next, and the entire amount forwarded to the treasurer of the relief fund at Johnstown, as a contribution from the citizen and press of Pittsburgh through the agency of the Opera House.

THE NEW
Spring and Summer Medicine.
FLUID EXTRACT
SARSAPARILLA,
COMBINED WITH
Iodide of Lime.
PREPARED FOR
G. W. PETTES, BOSTON,
BY
James R. Nichols & Co.,
MANUFACTURING CHEMISTS,
MANUFACTURERS OF THE
ELIXIR PERUVIAN BARK
WITH Protoxide of Iron,
Which has become so favorably known as a
Tonic and Restorative,
by Physicians and Invalids in all parts of the country.

The new preparation, "SARSAPARILLA IN A COMBINATION WITH IODIDE OF LIME, presents one of the most prompt alterative agents in a form capable of exerting full action upon the system, and this in minute and pleasant doses. It is conceded that the alterative, resolvent, or tonic effects of Iodine, are exerted most decidedly when associated with other alteratives, in combination; and the Sarsaparilla seems to fulfil perfectly all the favorable requisitions.

The first effect usually observed when "SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME" is taken, is an increase of appetite, showing that it has tonic properties of a marked character. Its alterative effects are manifest in its ready combination with the blood and tissues. Hale, scrofulous women and children improve rapidly under its use, and the vital functions assume a healthy condition.

It is admirably adapted to a large number of chronic or acute affections peculiar to children. It is suited to them, both by the mildness and efficiency of Medicinal effect and the pleasant, attractive form of the remedy. It may be given for a long period where constitutional influences are desired, and no repugnance, or disinclination to take the syrup, encountered. In White-Swellings, Hip-Joint Disease, and Distortions of the Spine, it should be given persistently, in moderate doses, until relief is obtained.

The accumulation of morbid matters in the system seems to become manifest and very troublesome. Lassitude, Headache, Boils, Costiveness, Loss of Appetite, Pains in the Joints, Indigestion, etc., are very common. Nothing ever devised is better adapted to exterminate or drive off these affections than this new combination of SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME.

No preparation like it, or which approximates to it as an

has ever before been placed within the reach of invalids. Indeed, it is an entirely NEW and SCIENTIFIC combination in no respect resembling anything hitherto employed.

The opinion of medical men concerning it, the description of its chemical character, therapeutic value, manner of use, etc., are given in a circular, which can be had at the store of any and all first-class Druggists.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

THURSDAY, September 20, 1866.

The New York stock quotations to-day were as follows: Gold, 144⅞; 1881's, 111¼; Five Twenties, old, 111¼; do, new, 108@108½; Ten Forties, 99; Seven Thirties, large, 105¾@106; do small, 105¼. Cleveland & Pittsburgh R. R., 87; Fort Wayne, 105⅝; Erie, 75¾; Chicago & Rock Island, 110⅜; Chicago & Northwestern, 36⅞; do preferred, 67⅞; Western Union Telegraph, 57¼; Michigan Southern, 85¼.

Gold, as will be seen from the above, is a shade lower, and the decline is attributed to the heavy shipments from Europe. Government bonds have undergone but little change during the week so far, excepting Ten-Forties, which are a shade lower. Seven-Thirties are dull, but there is a slight improvement in the demand for new Five Twenties, mainly for permanent investment. In our local stock market there is rather more doing, though there is still plenty of room for improvement. Columbia oil stock is in better demand but unchanged.

—The circulation of the country on the 1st instant, stood as follows:

Legal-tenders	$555,115,732
National bank notes	289,915,820
Fractional currency	26,483,998
Total	$871,515,550

Between the 1st of June, 1865, and the 1st of September current, there was a total reduction made in the amount of legal-tender notes of $101,044,837, and an increase in the national bank notes during the same time of $52,143,115. Thus the circulation has been increased more than forty-eight millions within that length of time.

—As the revenues of the government are full two and a half millions per week in excess of the expenditures, an amount too large to remain idle in the public depositories, we may naturally expect, after the payment in full of the clearing-house certificates, to see Secretary McCulloch in the market as a buyer of Government stocks to keep his balance down. The purchase of $2,500,000 weekly of temporary loan, or of funded debt, is enough to keep the market steady and insure a heavy funding of Seventy Thirties into long gold-bearing bonds.

—The Cincinnati Price Current says the last statement of the Secretary of the Treasury shows how easy it would be for Mr. McCulloch to resume specie payment, because no additional debt to the above will mature before next July, and the income from revenue will be at least $150,000,000 before then. Gold is coming to us from Europe and California; so that in fact there is nothing to prevent the resumption now but the fear of increased foreign importations, looking at the matter in the abstract; but then it must be remembered that such a movement would parlyze all kinds of business, and thus cut off the revenue receipts largely, leaving Mr. McCulloch without the ground to stand upon. Our bonds must advance considerably more in London before any attempt at specie payment can be made with safety, or they must decline here. It is quite likely that the first effect of a forced specie payment would be a decline in all United States bonds to below par. The demand for exchange has been steady, and the market firm all the week at our quotations. Government stocks are a shade firmer than they were a week ago.

CENTRAL LIVE-STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSB'GH GAZETTE,
WEDNESDAY, Sept. 20, 1866.

CATTLE.

The receipts of cattle were unusually large this week, and notwithstanding the advices from New York reported an advance, the market was regarded as a dull one, and both buyers and sellers complained bitterly. The supply of good cattle was considerably larger than last week, and common cattle were exceedingly plenty, and while the former brought fully last week's prices, the latter, as a general thing, sold a fraction lower, and changed hands very slowly. There was a fair attendance of buyers, but they operated very cautiously, refusing to pay any advance, and in many cases asking for concessions; and quite a number of western drovers, being unable to obtain what they considered a fair price, shipped on further east. Upon the whole, the market, although fairly active, did not appear very satisfactory to either buyers or sellers, apparently and neither were satisfied. Good to strictly prime cattle sold at from 8 to 9 cts, while medium grades may be quoted at from 6½ to 7½. Stock cattle in good supply and very dull, and a shade lower, selling at from 5 to 6, according to quality.

SHEEP.

There is no improvement to note in the market for sheep, and notwithstanding the arrivals were again comparatively light this week, prices remain unchanged. Prime fat sheep, of which there were but few in market sold at from 5¾ to 5½, while the commoner grades ruled at from 4½ to 4¾. Stock Sheep in good supply and dull.

SWINE.

The market for Hogs was again quite active this week, the transactions in the aggregate being unusually large, and as compared with last week, prices are a shade higher. We now quote at 10¾ to 11¾, for fair to prime heavy averages—one lot of extra, averaging 316 lbs, brought 11 45, and a drove of Penna. still-fed Hogs changed hand at 9½.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, September 20, 1866.

There is really but little that is new to be said about the produce markets. At best, the movements in produce have been very much restricted for some time past, but the inclement weather, if such a thing were possible, has had a tendency to intensify the dullness and stagnation which has prevailed for weeks. Flour continues very firm, as is Wheat also, but with these two exceptions, the general markets are devoid of anything like excitement, and the speculative feeling, owing to a want of confidence, has almost completely subsided.

GRAIN—Wheat is quiet and unchanged; we can report a small sale of choice Spring at $2,45. Oats firm with a sale of 1 car prime at 43, and small sales from store at 43 to 45. Corn is steady; sale of 1 car shelled at 79. No movement in Rye—it is quoted at 95 to $1. There is some inquiry for new Spring Barley, but there is little or none offering.

FLOUR—Is firm, with a continued a fair local demand, and we continue to quote at $11 to $12,00 for Spring Wheat; $12,25 to 12,50 for half Spring and half Winter; and $13 to $13,50 for all Winter Wheat. Sale of 100 bbls "White Star" at $12,50; and 100 bbls, St. Louis brand, at $13. Rye Flour is selling at $6,50 to $6,75.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is unchanged; regular sales at 17½ to 17¾ for Shoulders; 19½ to 20 for Ribbed Sides, and 25 to 26 for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is dull but firm at 21½. Mess Pork is held firmly at $34,50 to $34,75.

MILL FEED—Is in pretty good demand, and the stock of all kinds in this market is very much reduced. We quote at 90 to $1 for Bran; $1,05 to 1,15 for Shorts; $1,40 to 1,50 for Seconds; and $1,80 to $1,90 for Middlings.

SEEDS—There is a good demand for Flaxseed at $2¾, and none in market. Timothy Seed is in good supply and almost unsaleable. No movement in Clover.

EGGS—Continue in good demand, and as the receipts are light, and the supply almost exhausted, prices have advanced to 22@23.

BUTTER—Fresh firkin and keg Butter is selling at 28 to 30, while prime Roll may be quoted at 30 to 33. Common packed Butter is dull.

CHEESE—Is selling at 16 to 17 for Western Reserve; 17 to 18 for Hamburg, and 20 to 21 for Goshen.

APPLES—In good supply and dull but unchanged, at $1,50 to 2,50 per bbl—choice, in large sized barrels, $3.

SWEET POTATOES—Dull and lower, sales being reported to-day at $5 to $5,50 per bbl.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, Sept. 20, 1866

CRUDE—The demand for Crude continues very light, and notwithstanding holders seem willing to make concessions, buyers keep aloof in anticipation of a still further decline. We can report a sale of 250 bbls at 19, packages included; and 500 bbls (light gravity) at 13½, bbls returned. Quotations may be fairly given at 13½ to 14, bbls returned, and 18½ to 19, bbls included, and these may be regarded as the extremes of the market. In regard to the amount of oil that will reach here on the present rise, there is a great diversity of opinion. Some parties, who claim to be pretty well posted, estimate that two hundred thousand barrels will arrive here within the next ten days, but this is doubtless an exaggeration. Others, a little more conservative in their views, and equally as well posted, estimate that the run will not exceed one hundred and fifty thousand, and may not go over one hundred and twenty-five thousand. That an immense amount of oil will reach here on the present rise is generally conceded, but it is all folly to exaggerate.

REFINED—There is no improvement to note in the demand for bonded oil, and the market continues dull and weak with a drooping tendency. We have but a single sale to report, 500 bbls for present delivery, in Philadelphia, at 42½, and we are cognizant of several offers having been made to-day at 43, without meeting with any response. On Wednesday, some eight thousand barrels—mostly resales of contracts—changed hands in Philadelphia at 42½ to 43, and these seem to be the best figures obtainable at present, either for present or future delivery. There is no movement in free oil, and prices are nominally unchanged.

ARRIVALS—The following arrivals of oil were reported to-day:

Fisher & Bro.	1000	Jas. Wilkins	112
Phillips & Co	325	Kier, Moore & Co	250
Total	1687

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

New York Stock and Money Market

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—The money market remains very easy, and capital is getting to be a perfect drug. The demand for call loans is freely met at 4 per cent. for large, and 5 per cent. for small. The market for foreign exchange is dull. Bankers' bills are quoted at 107@107½. The market was quiet for the Government securities, but prices were generally steady; the closing prices were: 5-20 Coupons, '65, 108¾@108½; 10-40 Coupons [illegible]; July 7-30's, 106@106¼.

The stock market at the last open board was steady in the railways and generally better, Erie and Michigan Southern being the features. After the call Erie was active, and rose to 77½, but afterwards fell to 77¾. The balance of the list was well sustained, as a general thing. There was considerable activity in the mining shares this afternoon, although the volume of business was not up to that of the first board. The market was firm right through the list, and in most cases there was a recovery from the decline of the morning. There was very little done in the Petroleum shares.

Stocks stronger; Rock Island, 111; C. & P. 87; N. W., 36¾; do preferred, 67; P. F. W. & C., 106¼; C. & A., 108¾; T. W. & W., 45¾; N. Y. At the four o'clock board stocks were steady; U. S. 6's, '81, 5-20s, 1862, 111⅝; Tennessee 6s, new, 72⅝; O. & M. Certificates, 28¾; Western Union Telegraph, 56¾; N. Y. Central, 108; Erie, 77¾; do. preferred, 77; Reading, 115¾; Michigan Central, 113¾; M. S. & N. I., 85¾; Illinois Central, 121¾; C. B. & Q., 138½; C. & P., 87; C. & N. The Post's money article says: The Loan market is still in favor of the borrower. The Stock market is less animated. Governments are firm, but without much activity. Railroad shares are barely sustained. After the board the quotations were, for Erie, 74¾; Michigan Southern, 85¾; Rock Island, 111⅝. Foreign Exchange is dull.

RIVER NEWS.

The river rose steadily at this point during Wednesday night and all day yesterday, and was still swelling last evening, with over nine feet in the channel. So far, the rise has been in the Allegheny mainly, but as the recent rains appear to have been general, a swell of some importance may be expected in the Monongahela. The weather continues cloudy and warm, with frequent showers of rain.

The Argonaut No. 2 and Pine Grove, both from Cincinnati, arrived, and the Bayard arrived and cleared again for Parkersburg. The Leni Leoti is due here from Parkersburg this morning, and will leave again at noon.

The Belle Vernon, Capt. J. J. Darragh's new boat, came up to the wharf yesterday, and will at once commence loading for St. Louis. She is a very handsome looking steamer, and is well adapted for the trade.

The Argosy came around from the Allegheny wharf, where she has been undergoing repairs for some time past, and will at once commence loading for Cincinnati. The Argosy is now in tip-top condition for business, and we hope Capt. Vandergrift will receive, as he deserves, a good trip.

The W. A. Caldwell left for Cincinnati last evening with an excellent trip, having about all the freight she could carry.

The Importer, Capt. Noss, will be the first boat out for New Orleans, and passengers and shippers should bear this fact in mind. Mr. James Mellon, the clerk, will see that all having business with the boat receive every proper attention.

The Armenia, Capt. A. C. McCallum, with Mr. A. C. McCallum, Jr. in the office, is filling up steadily for St. Louis, and will leave on Saturday without fail.

Our coal men were busily engaged yesterday in getting their respective boats and barges in readiness for starting down the river, and as will be seen below, a large number got off, while an equally large number will start to-day. The following statement, although not critically correct, will show very nearly the amount of coal that will get out on the present rise—not including floating boats:

A case of five years' standing cured by DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP

PITTSBURGH, January 11, 1866.
DR. KEYSER:—My wife has been afflicted with it by cough and difficulty of breathing for five or six years, which, for several years back, had gradually increased in violence. The complaint has been hereditary, and she had been treated by several physicians without any relief. In this state of her case I procured some of your PECTORAL COUGH SYRUP I bought, the first time, a fifty cent bottle, which relieved her very much; I then called and got a dollar bottle, which cured her entirely, and she has now no trace of the former disease, except weakness. I would also state that I used the medicine myself to a cold and cough. The medicine cured me by taking one dose. I express my entire satisfaction with the medicine, and you are at liberty to publish this if you desire to do so.
WM. WILSON, Alderman, Fifth Ward

PITTSBURGH, April 24, [illegible]
READ THE TRUTH.—DR. KEYSER:—I have a daughter who has taken several medicines for a bad cough without benefit, among them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I purchased from you a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup and before she had used half a bottle she was relieved. The second bottle cured her entirely of her cough.
JOHN DAVIS, Robinson street, Allegheny.

PITTSBURGH, December 31, [illegible]
A GREAT CURE BY DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP. I live in Peebles township, Allegheny county. I had a cough and spitting, which commenced about the 4th of February last, and continued eight months. I employed the best physicians in the country, and my cough continued unabated until early in October. At that time I was advised to try your Pectoral Cough Syrup, which I did, and after I had taken one bottle I was entirely free from the coughing and spitting. I had despaired of ever getting well, and I think it should be known that this valuable remedy will do for others what it has done in my case.
JOHN C. LITTLE, Peebles township.
Witness R. F. KERR.

SATTON TOWNSHIP, April 14, 1866.
A WONDERFUL CURE.—Some time ago an old neighbor of mine was very ill with a bad cough, which every one supposed to be consumption. His relatives told me that he had taken every remedy they heard of without benefit; his brother came to see him die, and all were confirmed in the belief that he could not live. I had about the third of a bottle of your Pectoral syrup, which I gave him, and it entirely cured him, to the astonishment of all. What makes the case more remarkable, is the extreme age of the man, he being about eighty years old. I have no doubt the Pectoral saved his life.
JOHN McGINNIS.

DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP IN BLAIRSVILLE.—Please send me another supply of your valuable Pectoral Syrup. Almost everybody around us has the cold, and are enquiring for "Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup." We have sold sixteen bottles the last week, and are now entirely out. Mr. A. Alter and Mr. F. Maher, both of Blairsville, Pa., told us they would not be without it in their families. In fact, all who use it once want it again.
Yours, respectfully,
J. S. WATTERSON & SONS
January 30, 1866.

PITTSBURGH, November 18, 1865.
DR. KEYSER:—Although not an advocate of Patent Medicines, in general, it affords me pleasure indescribable to recommend your PECTORAL SYRUP. As a medicine, it is well worthy the attention of any person who may in any manner be afflicted with coughs, colds and hoarseness of any kind, and for the peculiar qualifications for removing all that disagreeable sensation attending a severe cold.
I have been, more or less in my life, affected with the severest of colds and hoarseness. At times my throat would become so closed as to prevent my speaking above a whisper, and by taking a few doses of the above Syrup it would relieve me entirely.
In recommending this medicine, I must unhesitatingly say that it is the best remedy I ever found, purporting to cure the above, nor should any family be without this remedy for diseases so prevalent.
Yours, most respectfully,
EDWARD J. JONES,
Cashier Citizens' Deposit Bank.

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio, March 14, 1865.
I have used Dr. Keyser's Cough Syrup for a bad cough of several years standing, and can cheerfully say it is the best medicine for the same that I have ever taken.
J. W. PRICE.

COL. PRATT AND DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—DR. KEYSER—Dear Sir: Excuse the delay of my acknowledging the excellence of your Pectoral Cough Syrup sooner. I take great pleasure in saying that it is all you say it is. It knocked the noise out of my cough, and the worst one I was ever afflicted with. I have not used more than one-half of a bottle, and I can and do wish that all who are afflicted would give it as fair a trial as I have done, and they will be proud to say, "It is no quack medicine, would not suffer another such an attack for any consideration, or at any cost. I am confident I can breathe more freely than I ever did. I shall always acknowledge a debt of gratitude for inventing so excellent a remedy. You are at liberty to use my name in this regard as you think proper.
E. F. PRATT,
Messenger Common Council, Pittsburgh, Pa.
N. B.—I am no stranger to my fellow-citizens, and all who entertain doubts can consult me personally.

ANOTHER NEW [illegible] DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL. [illegible] had been troubled with a cough and cold for [illegible] it that I could not [illegible] prescriptions from the best physicians in the city, whom I could name, but do not do so. I finally procured a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, which cured me entirely.

"STOP THAT COUGHING."—"How can I do it?" Go to Keyser's, on Wood street, and get a bottle of his Cough Pectoral, and if that don't cure you, your case must be desperate indeed." This is a specimen of the colloquy one hears every day in cold-catching periods of the year. And we can, from actual experiment, cheerfully concur in the adviser's admonition as above, for we have tried the "Pectoral," in a most stubborn case, with entire success. Near two weeks ago we went to Pittsburgh, with one of the most distressing, contrary, mulish, unsubduable coughs we ever experienced since our advent upon this mundane sphere. We coughed steadily and laboriously for one whole week, in hopes of tiring it out, but it was no go. In fact, it seemed rather to have improved by practice, and to have acquired strength, potency and distressibility by the operation. In this stage of the case, we concluded our trip to Keyser's, No. 140 Wood street, procured a fifty cent bottle of the "Pectoral," took it according to directions, and in forty-eight hours we were master of the field, the enemy having unconditionally surrendered, after a brief, but unequal conflict with so formidable an adversary as Keyser's famous Cough Pectoral.—Brownsville Clipper, Jan. 14, 1866.
